

CRACKERJACK--NOT PIE--IN THE SKY and this aerial sign visible for many blocks to motorists on either U. S. 30 or U. S. 45, plus the 4-way stop signs at the intersection of these two highways, brought many customers to the Frankfort Lions club members who were selling crackerjack last Sunday to raise funds for sight saving work. This is crackerjack selling time for Lions clubs all over the nation and the proceeds will all go into aiding those with defective vision. The two men here are Howard Osmus (left) and Ralph Show. Mokena To Dedicate New Sewage Plant Saturday

Formal opening and dedication of the Mokena sewage treatment plant is to be held Saturday, Oct. 17 from 2 to 5 p.m.

The plant, located on Wolf road between 189th and 190th streets, is designed to take care of a population of several times the present one.

Invitations have been sent to officials of all the surrounding communities and of course, the people of Mokena are urged to acquaint themselves at first hand with this improvement.

Mayor James Marti of Mokena and members of the board of trustees will be on hand to greet visitors and explain the operation of the plant. The engineer, Robert Hamilton, and Ray Lindblad, of the Lindblad Construction Co., of Joliet, that built the plant will be there to answer technical questions according to Trustee Charles Hostert who is in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Members of the board, besides the mayor and Hostert, are, Phil Hacker, Henry Shevlin, Willard Munch, Ray Westlund, and Stanley Williams. Alvin Sorensen is village clerk.

The sewer system was installed by Blaine Saxton, of Mokena. There are approximately eight miles of sewer lines that serve the village. Communities can no longer empty sewers into streams or open ditches. Because of that sewage treatment plants are required to serve all sewer systems.

The Mokena plant is said to be a good example of a treatment plant designed to serve smaller communities. It can be enlarged quite easily, however, to meet future demands.

New Lenox Lions Give Dance Oct. 24

A dance is to be given at Haven school, New Lenox, the night of Oct. 24, and proceeds will be turned over to Trinity school for the mentally retarded children.

The dance is to be sponsored by the New Lenox Lions club and music will be furnished by the Lincoln-Way high school dance band. Dancing is to begin at 9 p.m. and end at midnight.

John Oster, superintendent of the New Lenox grade schools, is general chairman, assisted by William J. Heidrich.

The dance is open to the public and tickets may be obtained at the door, the Minuth dance studio or members of the Lions club.

Special features are planned for the affair. The Minuth school of dance is to entertain with the "Paris Prance", as the theme. The Gene Peters barbershop quartet will sing and Ernie Falk is to give vocal solos. Besides regular dancing there will also be a square dance with Fred Fell the caller.

Trinity school is located at Gougar and Francis roads in New Lenox townships. Formerly it was conducted in what was known as the Gougar school but now there is a new school, built following a cam-

Hire Women Crossing Guards to Protect Children

Children attending Willow Crest school in Mokena who must cross Wolf road at 2nd street, will now be protected by women crossing guards.

Four women have volunteered their services to protect the crossing. In order to come under insurance regulations, the women will be sworn in as village auxiliary police, be furnished with safety belts, wear police stars, and be under the control of police chief James Smetana.

The women will arrange their own schedule and will be on duty between the hours of 8:30 to 9 a.m., 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 3 to 3:45 p.m. A total sum of $35 will be split between the crossing guards.

This is the result of a meeting held last Monday night in Mokena and attended by 25 mothers whose children attend the Willow Crest school. They conferred with Mokena civil defense director, Anthony Dina, who approached the village board Tuesday night with the problem of safeguarding children.

Under the civil defense program, in peacetime, volunteers may serve as auxiliary police, Dina informed, except in times of emergency.

Because a large number of children who attend St. Mary's parochial school ride buses and different conditions prevail at this school, the crossing at Wolf road and 195th st., will be protected by the police chief between 8 and 8:30 a.m. and 3 to 3:45 p.m., it was decided.

The streets and alleys committee was instructed to take care of a condition on Walsh Lane and the adjacent St. Mary's rd., because of a complaint made by Mrs. Loren Collins, representing the Parent-Teacher association.

The board also acted on a petition on the sanitary sewer system. All homeowners are requested to take steps in hooking on to the new system as soon as possible. The project is now completed and dedication of the sewage disposal plant will be held Oct. 17.

The fire department's request to have insurance refund receipts used for a new fire truck, was granted by the board.

A report was made by the village treasurer, Durward Fant that the village had received $1,832.40 in motor fuel tax refunds for recent street repairs.

Rock Island Fare Boost Now In Force

(CNS) The Rock Island Line's 20 per cent increase in commuter rates, effective yesterday, Oct. 14 is the railroad's fourth such hike in six years.

The new rates were approved in Springfield by the Illinois Commerce Commission which termed the schedules "just and reasonable." The increases apply to all types of tickets.

The higher fares are expected to cut a yearly $1,000,000 deficit by only $375,000, according to railroad testimony.

The minimum fare goes up from 25 to 30 cents.

The previous rate increase went into effect in February, 1958.

Here are the old and latest commuter rates at some stations for 46-ride monthly tickets:

	OLD	NEW
Blue-Is.-Ver.	$17.85	$21.40
Oak Forest	20.20	24.25
Tinley Park	22.30	26.75
Mokena	25.40	30.45
New Lenox	27.50	33.00
Joliet	30.55	36.65

Harold Miller, railroad statistician, established during hearings that riding the Rock Island still costs less than driving into downtown Chicago.

PHONE NUMBERS CHANGED

One of the telephone numbers of The Semmler Press, Inc., Mokena 3521, formerly served as a number for the residence of Mrs. Margaret Semmler. Now it will connect only with the newspaper office. The other number for The Semmler Press is Mokena 4151. The number now serving Mrs. Semmler and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith is Mokena 5561.

Court Refuses to Dismiss Suit of Subdivider Against Orland

(CNS)--The circuit court has refused to dismiss a lawsuit against Orland Park involving a fight over how a piece of land is subdivided.

A writ of mandamus commanding Orland Park officials to approve a plat of subdivision of land outside the village is sought by the Fernway Construction company in Circuit court.

Judge Cornelius J. Harrington ordered the village to file an answer. The Village is represented by its attorney, Raymond Pieper.

The suit states the plat meets with all county ordinances and state statutes, also the company has complied with all village ordinances.

Approval by Orland Park is needed because the limits of the village's 1 1/2 mile jurisdiction falls on the property on an angle bisecting the land. The plat establishes four lots of a half acre each, located at the northeast corner of 161st street and 188th avenue.

According to the suit, the village officials refused to approve the plat on the basis that it doesn't conform to village requirements for curbs and gutters and streets according to village specifications. Such demands are "unreasonable and arbitrary," the suit asserts.

The suit seeks an order commanding the village president, village clerk, and the chairman of the village plan commission to affix their signatures to the plat. The play was submitted to the village on July 13 to obtain the necessary official signatures, the suit says. On July 27 notification that approval wasn't forthcoming was received, it adds.

The plaintiff is represented by Attorney Paul M. Smith, Jr. The plat is known as Fernway Unit No. 4.

L-W Teacher Named Head Junior Academy Of Science

George Abraham, head of the science department at Lincoln-Way community high school, has been named chairman-elect of the Illinois Junior Academy of Science by the Senior Academy Board.

Mr. Abraham is presently chairman of judging for the state science fair which will come in the spring.

His term as state chairman will begin Sept. 1, 1961.

This is the second time that a Lincoln-Way faculty member has held this high position in the state science high school program.

Neil Hardy, who has moved to the University of Indiana, was previously the chairman-elect of the Junior Academy from Lincoln-Way.

The Council of the State Academy will meet in Springfield at the St. Nicholas Hotel on Saturday, November 14. At this meeting they will discuss policies, finances, and projected activities.

The Junior Academy is dedicated to student work with the chairman-elect a non-salaried person. However, the Academy is no small organization. The working budget for the current year is over twenty-five thousand dollars.

Robert C. Wallace, of Reavis high school in Oak Lawn, is the present chairman and will serve until Abraham takes over.

The appointment is considered to be an honor for Mr. Abraham since he has only been teaching in Illinois for four years.

RUMMAGE SALE

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Palos Heights Methodist church, 121st and Harlem ave., will hold a rummage sale in the church Thursday, Oct. 22, from 6 to 9 p.m., and Friday, Oct. 23, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Hold Talent Show Tryouts In Frankfort

Oetter at Frankfort 5316 or write to Kenneth Oetter, 266 W. Nebraska St., Frankfort, and an application will be mailed to you.

The Talent Show will be held Sunday Nov. 15, starting at 7:30 p.m. in the Frankfort Grade School Gym and is sponsored by the Bobzin-Swinford Post 1098, The American Legion, Frankfort.

Proceeds will be used to help sponsor the annual field trip of the eighth grade of the Frankfort public school to Springfield and New Salem. Cash prizes will be awarded. So bring on the talent. Application also will be available at the Lincoln-Way Community High school.

Slightly more than half of all the blind people in the United States are 65 years old or over; approximately 30 per cent are between 40 and 64; 12 per cent between 20 and 39, and seven per cent under 20.

Former Blacksmith Shop Site For New Postoffice At Mokena

Site for the proposed new postoffice at Mokena is that occupied by the blacksmith shop operated by the late Albert Braun, on the north side of Front street, about a quarter block east of Wolf Road.

The real estate division of the postoffice department has an option on the property obtained from Mrs. Frances Braun, widow of the former owner. This option is assignable and can be turned over to the persons or company who erect the building.

Such building would be constructed in conformance to specifications laid down by the postal service and leased to the department.

Such a project, it was pointed out, is an attractive investment as the owner is assured of a good tenant and lease with a long expectancy.

Most of the postoffices in the smaller communities are being built in this manner. A similar system is followed by various private corporations, especially those engaged in merchandising.

Persons interested in building a new postoffice may write S. A. Van-Patten, P. O. Dept. Chicago, for detailed information. Bids will be received between Oct. 15 and Jan. 8.

The building is to contain 2400 square feet of floor space.

The property is described as Lot

4 and an easterly portion of Lot 3, in Block 1. There is an alley along the east line of the site which would give easy access to the rear of the building for receipt and dispatch of mail.

There has been talk of a new postoffice for Mokena for the past two years and some months ago a representative of the department was in town to inspect various sites.

After a new postoffice is available Mokena can expect to get home delivery of mail, according to Postmistress Margaret O'Brien. Present quarters are too small for the carriers, she explained.

IN CHARGE OF BENEFIT DANCE--General chairman of the dance planned for Oct. 24 by the New Lenox Lions club to aid Trinity school for mentally retarded children is the man seated at the desk, John Oster, superintendent of New Lenox schools. Seated on the desk is William J. Heidrich, president of the Lions club and the woman is Mildred Minuth, program director. The three form the committee in charge and they are forming plans to sell as many tickets as possible because Trinity school can use the money. Trinity school does not receive any support thru taxes. (Marvin Smith photo)

SEEK BLUE RIBBONS--These handsome young Hereford bulls, owned by the Oxo Hereford farm, Mokena, are now on their way to the American Royal livestock show at Kansas City, Mo. Oct. 17-24. John Matasovic and his wife, Estelle, who own the Oxo farm, and their daughter, Marilyn, appear here with the per of three junior yearling (over a year old) bulls which won championships in the Illinois State Fair. The sire of two of them is Portage Mixer 1, who has two international championships among his get, and the sire of the other is Silver Zot. Both sires are owned by Oxo farm. (Marvin Smith photo)

Hold Style Show For Patients At Tinley Hospital

The Activity Therapies department at Tinley Park State hospital will put on a style show, Oct. 30, for patients. The show is scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m. in Infirmary III Day Room.

About 15 patients will model clothing furnished by various hospital volunteers. Mrs. Estelle Benn, supervising therapist is in charge of this project.

Mrs. Alma Young, volunteer services supervisor for the hospital is in charge of volunteers who will participate in the joint program.

After patients finish modeling, they will be given the clothing for their own personal use. Some 25 new dresses were donated by the Peerless Department store of Homewood.

Refreshments will be served immediately following the style show for all participants, volunteers and patients.

Mokena VFW Auxiliary Aids State Hospitals

Mrs. Maude Larson of Phoenix, Ariz., a former president of the Ladies Auxiliary to Wm. Martin Post 725, Mokena, was a welcome visitor at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary Oct. 1. Mrs. Mathilka Stankus presided.

The members voted to send $10 to the Christmas fund for the children at Dixon State hospital.

Mrs. Helen Murphy, hospital chairman, announced a bingo party for the patients at Kankakee State hospital, Tuesday, Oct. 13, where refreshments and prizes were furnished by the Auxiliary.

The regular card party will be held Saturday evening Oct. 17, in the VFW hall. All games start at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served by the following committee: Mrs. Dolly Matsey, chairman; Mrs. Mildred McMillan and Mrs. Murphy. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Tinley Park

League Of Women Voters To Hold "International" Dinner

In his proclamation, President Dwight D. Eisenhower has urged the citizens of this nation to observe Saturday, Oct. 24 as United Nations Day by means of community programs which will demonstrate their faith in the United Nations and contribute to a better understanding of its aims, problems and achievements. Oct. 24, 1959 was the day that the United Nations officially came into being. The theme for the 1959 celebrations of UN day is "The UN is Your Business."

The Tinley Park League of Women Voters, therefore, is doing its share in UN festivities by presenting an international dinner to be held Saturday, Oct. 24, at the American Legion hall. The hours will be from 5 to 8 p.m. This smorgasbord of nations, featuring foods of UN countries, will include such dishes as Italian Lasagne, Swedish meatballs, Turkish pilav (rice dish), German potato salad, Irish soda bread, Spanish cookies, Jewish honey cake, Scotch shortbread and many more tantalizing foods. The public is invited to this International array of delicious, home made food. The ladies serving, hope to be wearing traditional native costumes. If anyone has a costume to loan, or perhaps just a headress, please call June Balaker, KE 2-4965.

The accent will be on fun but there will be plenty of material on display pertaining to the UN that will be informative and meaningful. The League's UN dinner committee consists of June Balaker, Mary Burian, Gloria Clement, Corrine Deinert, Wilma Gervase, Claire McLain, Ruth Miller, Mary Lois Ozburn, Phoebe Schooley and Joan Zimmerman.

Miss Bonnie L. Brauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brauer, 17600 S. 66 ave., has enrolled in the College of Nursing at the Chicago Professional colleges of the University of Illinois.

Her studies will lead toward a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing. She is a 1957 graduate of Bremen H. S.

The Colleges of Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing and Pharmacy and a 620-bed general hospital form the nucleus of the Chicago Professional Colleges located two miles west of downtown Chicago in the 305-acre Medical Center District.

LIGHTING OF FARM VEHICLES—Signs encouraging the use of safety lights on farm vehicles so that they may be better seen from the rear were posted at strategic locations in the state by the Illinois Farm Bureau women in their 1959 safety project. The women won second place in the statewide category of the 1959 Carol Lane Awards For Traffic Safety. The awards are administered by the National Safety Council. The sign under the mail boxes was located near Wheaton. John Gustafson, who lives near Wheaton, cooperated by putting a light on a discing attachment. The light was made for less than $1., the price of a string of wire. The lights were removed from a junked truck and the bar was picked up in the machine shed and twisted to the right shape.

Pleasure

THE PLEASURE and delight of knowledge and learning far surpasses all other in nature. For, shall the pleasures of the affections so exceed the pleasure of the sense, as much as the obtaining of desire or victory exceeds a song or a dinner? And must not of consequence the pleasure of the intellect or understanding exceed the pleasures of the affections? We see in all other pleasures there is satiety, and after they be used, their freshness departs; which shows well that they are but deceits of pleasure, and not pleasures; and that it was the novelty which pleased, and not the quality.—Francis Bacon, British, 17th century.

If men in this life only have hope; if in this life only can they enjoy, it is not strange or unreasonable, that they should seek their happiness by avoiding all things that disease them here, and by pursuing all that delight them; wherein it will be no wonder to find variety and difference. For if there be no prospect beyond the grave, the inference is certainly right—"Let us eat and drink"—let us enjoy what we delight in—"for tomorrow we shall die."—John Locke, British philosopher.

Philosophy does not contend against natural pleasures, provided they be moderate; and only preaches moderation, not a total abstinence. The power of its resistance is employed against those that are adulterate and strange. Philosophy says that the appetites of the body ought not to be augmented by the mind, and ingeniously warns us not to stir up hunger by satiety; not to stuff, instead of merely filling, the belly; to avoid all enjoyments that may bring us to want; and all meats and drinks that bring thirst and hunger.—Michel de Montaigne (16th century), creator of the essay.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.—(St. Matt. 7:7.)

Men who succeed in any quest, be they scientists or salesmen, are the ones who ask and seek and knock on closed doors. The answers and sales are there for those who go after them intelligently and energetically. So it is with God. Those who would find Him have only to open the eyes of their souls and seek Him. He is here.

An octagonal road sign means stop. Triangular signs mean "slow down" or "stop and yield the right-of-way." A diamond-shaped sign warns of dangerous or unusual road conditions ahead. Rectangular signs govern speed limits.

N. Lenox Druggist Shares Citation For Fair Exhibit

F. Noel Elliott, owner of the Rexall Pharmacy at New Lenox, shared in the citation given the Rexall Drug Co. by Vice President Nixon in behalf of the U. S. Dept. of Commerce, for the firm's participation in the United States exhibit in the 1959 international trade fair held at Poznan, Poland.

"You have contributed significantly to world understanding of peace and prosperity under the American system of free and competitive enterprise," the citation reads in part.

At the request of the department of commerce the Rexall company—that showed the first American drug store behind the Iron Curtain—has moved its exhibit from Poland to Salonica, Greece, to take part in the 24th international fair now in progress there.

CENTRAL SCHOOL NEWS

TEACHERS INSTITUTE

The students of the Central school will enjoy a one-day vacation, Oct. 16. The reason is that it is teachers institute day.

The teachers go to a high school for the day and attend lectures, given by well known individuals in the teaching field. The lectures are given to give the teachers information on new teaching techniques. This is done to keep the teachers always informed on new things to teach the pupils. All of our teachers will go to Rich Township high school in Park Forest this year.

On other teachers institute days the teachers go to another school and observe in their classrooms. This is usually held in March.

New 7th and 8th Grade Students
Since the school year begins in September we have had many new students in the 7th and 8th grades. Altogether we have 14 new pupils.

In the 7th grade the new students are Pamela Skwira, Kathleen McCray, Renee Zoberis, Donna DeRouin, Maureen Cannon, Randy Bouer and Shirley Mitchell.

The new students in the 8th grade are Allen Skwira, Kent Casey, Dennis Stauffenberg, John Garb, Gary Borman, Bill Hanno and Roberta Kent.

We are very pleased to have all of these new students in our school.

INTRAMURALS

The boys intramural teams have just completed softball schedule with the Esquires winning the championship with an unbeaten record. The team captain is Colin Sorensen and Rocky Mahoney is co-captain. Other players on the team were: Tom Watkins, Kent Casey, Terry Murphy, John Schmidt, Bruce Smothers, Tom Rauch, Bob Enzenbacher, Ricky Strond, Dave Schneider, and Pat Paul.

The boys will now play a round robin tournament in touch football. The girls will continue to play softball.

1,000 Attend Jamborette

More than one-thousand persons visited the Jamborette conducted last Friday and Saturday by Rainbow council, Boy Scouts of America. The event was held on a tract of land owned by the Commonwealth Edison co. and located East of Caterpillar Tractor Co.

Approximately seven hundred and fifty Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and their leaders participated in the activity which was a council-size version of a National Jamboree.

The program Saturday afternoon included Scouts participating in an Adventure Trail which included ten stations giving instruction and examinations in such subjects as: American history, first aid, signaling, measuring, ropework, nature and fire by friction.

In addition Scouts and the general public viewed demonstrations presented by the Caterpillar Tractor Co. fire department, the amateur radio club, the United States Marine Corps, the Shadows, a national championship drum and bugle corps.

A special feature of the Jamborette was the arrival of Chief Red Feather in full Indian dress. The chief toured the encampment and distributed "Fair Share Community Chest crickets" in commemoration of current Community Chest campaign. Chief Red Feather was welcomed in behalf of the community Chest by Robert McQueen, initial gifts chairman.

Highlight and climax of the Jamborette was a huge patriotic campfire and impressive candle lighting ceremony in which every Scout and visitor held a burning candle symbolic of the flame of freedom of the torch held by the Statue of Liberty.

...remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.—(Acts 20:35.)

It takes most of us at least half a lifetime to appreciate, through our own personal experience, the truth of the Master. But what a blessed, full and useful life would result if we accepted His words in our youth and lived the long years to that end.

Royal Navy Gun Team To Make First Appearance In America

The spectacular Royal Navy gun team competition, making its first appearance in America, will be the feature attraction of the International Horse Show, Nov. 27-Dec. 5, at the International Amphitheatre. The announcement was made today by Charles S. Potter, president of the Union Stock Yard & Transit Company, sponsors of the International Live Stock Exposition.

The horse show, held in conjunction with the International Exposition, will present a total of 14 performances, including five matinees.

The gun teams, known as the "Musclemen of Her Majesty's Navy" are rated among the 50 toughest men in the Royal Navy. In their precision drill performances, they simulate actual battle conditions as they combine brawn, speed and color in demonstrating how artillery guns and equipment are dispatched across obstacles and chasms while fighting to conquer the "enemy". Final details of the Chicago engagement are now being worked out.

Starting with the first explosion of a thunderflash, the competition is action-packed throughout as the competing teams (18 men on each side) members of the Fleet Air Arm, race against time and the opposition to dazzle audiences with their skill and dexterity in dismantling guns and executing difficult maneuvers. It takes a crew about three minutes, nine seconds to dismantle an ancient field gun.

As described by the Admiralty's office at Whitehall, London, the gun crews duplicate the action of the famous English Navy battle at Quebec (1759), Lucknow (1857), Ladysmith (1899), and China (1900).

The competition is staged on a difficult "chasm" course. The chasm is formed by two ramps set 28 feet apart, over which the crews must pass their one-ton gun and limber by use of spars and wires. The action runs in three phases:

1. The Run Out. Following a thunderflash explosion, two crews take guns and limbers down the sides of the arena to the "home" end, where they wheel around and start the advance. All men and gear go over a 5-foot wall, negotiate the chasm, and proceed through a "breach" in the enemy wall. Once through the wall, the crews engage the enemy in a brisk 3-round action.

2. The Run Back. A bugler sounds "retire" and both crews retire over the enemy wall, bring back all their gear across the chasm, and fire three rounds in rear guard action against the enemy.

3. The Run Home. The enemy having been repulsed, the bugler sounds "cease fire", and the crews take guns and limbers out of action through a hole in the "home" walls, and race back down the sides of the arena to the finish line. Running times are carefully recorded and the winner is determined on time points. Time penalties are imposed for any infringements during the maneuvers.

Members of the teams are chosen from volunteers and are trained for five months. The equipment which they are handling during the runs weighs seven tons, so the men must be in top physical condition and coordinated in their teamwork.

The dazzling uniforms of the competitors provide the colorful blue trousers, white shirts and heavy boots of the runners, and swords, garters and whistle chains for the officers. Commander J. M. Henry of the Royal Navy is in charge of the crews.

176 Scholarships Given To U. Of I. For 1959-60 Year

Scholarships have been awarded to 176 undergraduates at the University of Illinois for the academic year 1959-60, Director Donald A. Grossman, University scholarship program, has announced.

Awards of cash scholarships are made by a committee on special undergraduates on basis of a careful study of the student's academic record and his financial need.

Funds for scholarships come from alumni, gifts from firms, corporations and individuals; and trust funds that have been given to the University by bequests in wills.

Awards range in value from tuition of $150 per year to $500. A few scholarships exceed this amount.

Good Rule For Homemade Pickles Is 24 Hours From Vine To Brine

Are home made pickles worth the time and effort they take? How is a busy homemaker to decide?

Mrs. Mary Hubbard, food specialist, University of Illinois home economics department, suggests that you find the answer by taking stock of the produce in the home garden, adding the importance of family preference and then dividing by your time and "pickling patience."

Making top-quality pickles is a puttering job and it is patience as well as exact proportions that counts. Time is required to select and care for fresh, crisp vegetables and fruits and to find high grade vinegar, pure salt and fresh spices. And these are the things

Divide Cook County Townships Into 4 Assessment Districts

(CNS) The 38 townships in Chicago and suburban Cook county are to be divided into four assessment districts to eliminate the big job of reassessing all real estate at one time once every four years.

One-fourth of the real estate in Chicago and the county would be reassessed each year under a program Assessor P. J. Cullerton is presenting to the County Board.

A new state law gives the county authority to divide its territory into districts so that the quadrennial reassessment could proceed on a continuing, rotational basis.

With this setup, Cullerton says he can have a permanent field crew making regular inspections instead of hiring a big temporary force every four years.

Here's the grouping of townships in districts that would be established under Cullerton's recommendations:

District 1: Barrington, Palatine, Wheeling, Northfield, New Trier, Niles, Evanston, Rogers Park, Lake View, and North Chicago.

District 2: Hanover, Schaumburg, Elk Grove, Maine, Leyden, Proviso, River Forest, Riverside, Norwood Park, and Jefferson.

District 3: West Chicago, Oak Park, Cicero, Berwyn, Lake, Stickney, Lyons, Calumet, Worth, Palos and Lemont.

District 4: South Chicago, Hyde Park, Thornton, Bloom, Bremen, Rich and Orland.

The new program would probably begin with reassessment of property in the first district in 1961, the second district in 1962 and so on.

A test suit would be taken to the Illinois Supreme court to determine the validity of the new law, Cullerton said.

Use Full Name On Car License Applications

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter today reminded Illinois motorists that they should list their complete first, middle and last names when filling out applications for the 1960 registration of their motor vehicles.

The written signature may be in the individual's customary style, but on the top line of the application blank, where the name is to be printed or typewritten, the name must appear in full, Secretary Carpenter said.

By filling out the application with the full name, a motorist insures positive identification, thus preventing convictions for traffic law violations from being posted on the wrong person's record.

Women, whether married or single, should use their given names. It should be shown: Brown, Mary Jane. It is not acceptable to fill out the application, Brown, James R. Mrs.

During World War I, according to a report by the Twentieth Century Fund, only 4.1 per cent of all enlisted men in the U.S. armed forces had finished high school. In World War II, the figure was more than 23 per cent.

are one of the greatest problems in making pickles.

Distilled white vinegar is usually considered first choice for pickle making, since it protects the color of the food. However, if you prefer the cider vinegar because of its mellow flavor and aroma, select a quality product.

Pure granulated salt should be used. Flake salt or dairy salt, the kind used for making butter and curing meats, is good. Table salt may also be used, but chemicals have been added to prevent lumping and they tend to cloud or darken the pickles.

Fresh spices are the only ones worth using. The whole spices hold their flavor longer and do not cloud or darken the liquid. Tie them in a cloth bag for processing, and remove them before you pack the pickles. Otherwise they may darken the pickles and add an undesirable flavor.

Use enamelware, aluminum or stainless steel containers for heating the pickles. DO NOT USE COPPER OR IRON CONTAINERS. Pack them in glass containers with glass lids, and seal them air tight for storage. Keep them in a cool place away from the light.

Business & Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

Now that the steel strike is about over, a number of areas of the business economy will improve.

Factory worker take-home pay was down in August and September. Building contracts fell sharply.

In August and at least as much in September due to shortages of steel.

It is expected that steel makers and the union will now come to an agreement and the results will be some gain for the union demands. No continuation of the strike at the end of the 80-day period required under the Taft Hartley Act is expected. It is obvious that political requirements will not permit an extended strike which can affect the whole economy.

Cynics express the opinion that the steel makers wanted to fight this strike to a finish and did not want Taft Hartley Act intervention and that labor circles desired the invoking of this act, but could not ask for it as they have so often called this act the enemy of labor. We do know that some of the labor leaders have been publicly demanding that the government intervene. Reuther demanded this about a month ago stating that the repercussions of the strike were too great to allow it to continue.

To be consistent and not become involved in an inter-union struggle on this point, a leader could well work for action which he must oppose in public. This is not at all unusual in our complex political life. Political leaders explain that they must work with the whole people and a majority of them may be influenced by superficial aspects of a situation. The experienced labor negotiator for employers is well aware of this condition.

It is expected that steel production will go ahead at or near full capacity for the next six to ten months at least. With this should come a prosperous business era. The earnings reports for the year on business generally, should make very pleasant reading. However, steel producers will obviously not show up well as to the third quarter due to the strike.

Home builders are concerned over a shortage of mortgage money. Housing starts are down from a record high of 1,434,000 early in the second quarter to 1,340,000 in August. The increase in F.H.A. insured mortgages from 5 1/4% to 5 3/4% and increase in F.H.A. insuring authority by $8 billion, should aid home building activity for a time.

Offsetting the home construction decline is the increase in commercial and industrial building and modernization. Plant expansion has been increasing considerably and may be expected to go ahead even more now that the steel strike has been settled. The more conservative companies have been watching the steel strike closely as to its settlement and also the public and political climate in which it is settled.

Funds for such industrial expansion will not be too dependent on interest rates and a tight money market. Corporate management generally has been anticipating their expansion needs for some time and instead of increasing dividends in line with record or near-record earnings, have been building up their reserves.

Most of the managements of better firms have been well aware of the likelihood of Federal Reserve tightening of credit to try and control inflationary trends. They do not want to issue bonds which must be sold under adverse circumstances and, therefore, generate the required funds in their own firms. This practice at this time, can very well be in the best interests of the stockholder.

Mokena

Announce New Officers Of Home Bureau

The monthly meeting of the Frankfort-Mokena Home Bureau met in the home of Mrs. Fred Piepenbrink Thursday evening, Oct. 1. Thirteen members were present and five guests, namely: Mesdames; Garrett Woodman, Charles Brucer, Leroy Olson, and Alma Knowlton all of Frankfort and Mrs. William Cady of Mokena.

Mrs. Marvin Kohl, new chairman opened the meeting and announced the following officers for the coming year: Mrs. Fred Piepenbrink, vice chairman, Mrs. Lawrence Kohl, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Westlund, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Buske, program; Mrs. John Hubler, publicity; Mrs. Emil Groth, social; Mrs. George Elsner, recreation; Mrs. Fred Schinkowski, sick chairman; Mrs. George Smego, health.

Mrs. Fred Piepenbrink and Mrs. Fred Schinkowski presented and demonstrated the major lesson "Yeast breads of Other Lands." The women put much time and effort into preparing the lesson which was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jubler has accepted the position of financial chairman of the county board.

On Sunday Oct. 18, the unit picnic, which was postponed a short time ago, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Elsner.

Jane Carol, five month old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Marshall of Chicago was christened Sunday, Oct. 11 in the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Willard Martie with the Rev. W. J. Riemann officiating. Miss Doris Yunker and Mr. W. J. Marshall Sr. were the sponsors. Later dinner was served to the immediate families.

Miss Barbara L. Niemann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niemann, of Mokena, has registered as a freshman for the first semester at Blackburn College in Carlinville.

Nearly 390 students are enrolled at the liberal arts college this year. Blackburn emphasizes a general education, and is noted for its work plan, which required each student to work 15 hours per week. The work program is limited to meeting daily needs of the college community. Students do construction and maintenance work, prepare the meals, serve as secretaries or receptionist, and carry out the janitorial work.

Miss Niemann is a 1959 graduate of the Lincoln-Way Community High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolter of Pasadena, Calif., returned Thursday after spending two weeks at the home of Fred Wannemacher and sisters. They also visited the Walter Cappel home at Arkdale, Wisc.

Mrs. Bernice Janowski of Chicago, who is blind and has been in ill health for several months, is now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Smiel. She was brought to her Oct. 3.

The Men's club of St. John's church will entertain their wives at a special event this evening in the church dining room. The Youth Fellowship of the church will attend the Christian Youth rally in the Manhattan church Oct. 18 starting at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lester Schiek entertained her pinocle club in her home Thursday afternoon.

Fred Kieslar, former Lincoln-Way student, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver A. Kieslar of 130 Wolf Road, has been accepted for membership in the Orion social club at Park College, Parkville, Mo. Each student belongs to one of the four social clubs at the school. Fred is a freshman at Park College.

The Womens Society of Christian Service met Thursday afternoon in the church. Plans were completed for the dinner to be served in the

Officials

Attend County Safety Dinner

The public schools and St. George parochial school in Tinley Park were represented at the Cook county traffic safety commission dinner held last week.

The dinner was given by the commission, which is headed by County Commissioner Daniel Ryan, to recognize officials of safety programs in villages thruout the southwest section of the county.

Representing Tinley Park, which received a safety award for participation in the school safety bicycle program, were Walter Fierke, superintendent of public schools; and Mrs. Fierke, Walter Barton, safety officer on the police force and Mrs. Barton, safety chairman of the Parent-Teacher Association; police officers Wilbert Mager, Gordon Erskine, and their wives.

At the recent bicycle safety inspection made at St. George school only five bikes out of a total of 93 inspected, were found in perfect condition. There were 69 with slight defects.

DRIVING HINT

Falling leaves mean skidding wheels, particularly when wet. The institute of Safer Living urges motorists to be wary, slow down in areas where leaves are likely to accumulate on the roadway. Double caution is required in rainy autumn weather.

Methodist church dining room next Thursday afternoon and evening, Oct. 22 starting at 4:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fox of Hemet, Calif., former Mokena residents, are visiting a few days this week with their former neighbors here.

Mrs. Fred Cappel entertained in her home Monday evening in their honor when the Mokena friends were guests.

The WCSC and the Evening circle had a joint meeting in the Methodist Church Friday evening. Following a worship program, the pastor, the Rev. Robert King showed moving pictures.

Mrs. William Schmidt of Chicago spent last Saturday with her mother Mrs. Florence Pitman, and Monday, Mrs. Stanley Piper of Grant Park spent the day with her mother who is recovering from a virus illness.

Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler spent Saturday and Sunday in Galesburg where the Illinois Press Women held a down state meeting Sunday.

HOUSEWIVES EXCHANGE BABY SITTING

By exchanging baby sitting duties, two young southwest suburban housewives are resuming their college education this fall at the University of Illinois, Oak Forest Hospital campus, 159th and Cicero.

Mrs. Leonard Tryner, 175th and Central, attends "Introduction to Poetry" on Wednesdays Mrs. Donald Anderson, 5400 W. 175th St., both of Tinley Park, is enrolled in "Social Problems", on Thursdays.

A stimulating preview, including the RCA recording "Poet's Gold", was staged to acquaint students with a wide range of modern verse, as the curtain went up opening night, by Dr. Irving Blum, playwright, and member of the Shaw Society of Chicago.

An Evanstonian, Dr. Blum, 915 Sherman St., is a former advertising man who began college after World War II on the GI Bill, receiving his Ph. D. from Rutgers in 1953.

Dr. Peter Klassen, 810 Elmwood Dr., Oak Park, head of the U of I's Chicago Social Science Dept., is the instructor for "Social Problems". He was formerly with the U. S. government, Florida and Pittsburg universities.

Both professors acquainted with today's modern suburban living joined in the coffee break intermissions; a pleasant custom adopted by the southwest student body, who take turns bringing dessert to the late afternoon classes.

Nurse Thelma Burton, 15328 Center St., Harvey, and Mrs. Mary

De Francisco, 15210 Laramie, and Mrs. Raleigh Bagbr, 6639 - 174th St., both of Tinley Park hosted the first three poetry intermissions.

REAVIS NO PATSY FOR BREMEN

Observers Figure Flossmoor As Easy Prey For Sandburg Gridders Saturday

Bremen, after handing previously unbeaten Evergreen Park its first defeat of the season, 26-0, will not have an easy time with the Reavis Rams. Rich barely beat the Rams, 20-12, last Saturday.

The Eagles will get a game from Homewood - Flossmoor, but it should be an easy road to victory for Sandburg. The Vikings are a winless outfit, having dropped its third game of the season, 14-6, to Oak Lawn.

The Braves will face a stern test in the Reavis contest. Bob LeMonier has been a rugged and tireless runner for the Rams and he should not find the Braves line any harder to run through than Rich's.

Reavis' line is large enough and has plenty of charge. Charge enough—to give any team in the SWS the fits on a given week-end.

If the Braves follow the pattern they have set—Reavis will come home with its second victory.

Comparative scores are rather deceptive. If we followed the scores they would indicate, depending on which side of the fence you sit, that Bremen is stronger and also show that Reavis is the favorite.

A healthy, Rich Norbut added a great deal of punch to the Bremen offense last week-end at Evergreen. In fact, Rich scored all four of the Bremen touchdowns.

His longest run for a touchdown was a 12-yarder. But he ran well in the entire game. Norbut is big enough and has enough desire to run rather well against most any team in this conference and will be no end of trouble to the Rams on Friday afternoon at Midlothian.

Bob LeMonier is the only back of any consequence for the Rams. Bob had demonstrated a real ability to charge through the line and then moved once he has gotten by the line of scrimmage.

He is a power type of runner that requires gang tackling in most instances. He is smart enough to follow his interference, not nearly as good as Jim Jeffries of the Sandburg team, but plenty good for a high school footballer.

This game will be decided in the lines. If the Braves are up and driving they will win the game. Otherwise, it will go to the butting Rams.

Callan should have the line up. It was his big line that did so much in upsetting front running Evergreen Park by such a decisive score.

Bremen—if they win—will do it in a close battle.

—O—

The Eagles of Sandburg ought to be primed primed for the Saturday battle with Homewood-Flossmoor.

Jim Jeffries, fine running back, who was absent from the Lincoln-Way contest will be back. Devine should have his team up and ready for the championship charge.

With Jeffries absence from the Sandburg lineup last week, one explosive running for the Eagles was absent. If Jim sparkles as he did in the Reavis game—the Eagles will rout the Vikings of H-F. Homewood is still looking for the first victory. About all that the Vikings can boast is a fine passer, but the stories say that he has no receivers. So...people are beginning to wonder if he is that good a passer.

If he and a couple receivers would click on Saturday at Orland Park—look out. But don't count on another upset—the proportions of Lincoln-Way—Rich or Bremen—Evergreen Park.

The Eagles know that no team can be taken too lightly in the SWS this year and so they will probably be ready to fire their guns with McBride's passing and the Jeffrey rushes.

A young man who has been overlooked to date in the Sandburg backfield is Paul Busch. He is not the breakaway type, but has shown good power slants over tackle. He seems good for a couple of yards on every carry.

Vince DiBenedetto gets plenty of notice on the scouting reports as a guard. Devine's ends; Gorney, LaVine are both good pass receivers and LaVine has been quite good on pass defense. He swiped two passes in the Reavis game.

The Eagles will probably fly on to conference victory number three and its fourth victory of the season. If the field is dry, the Eagles will probably score three or four touchdowns.

KNIGHTS FACE STERN TEST AT OAK LAWN Game Saturday To Decide If L-W Is First Division Club

Lincoln-Way travels to Oak Lawn on Friday afternoon to face the stern test of whether or not they shall be relegated to the second division of the SWS. If the Knights win and everything else goes true to form they will be in a fourth place tie with Oak Lawn and one other squad.

The Knights have looked strong even though the record shows one win and two losses.

They have met and lost in tight duels to two of the four teams that are on top. The only conference win has been at the expense of Rich. The Knights have shown plenty of class. They are no longer the league dormant.

The mud and rain hampered the vaunted running of Jerry Haehelein and Howie Mann last Saturday, but on a dry field they will cause plenty of trouble at Oak Lawn. L-Way's line stopped a rugged Sandburg running attack—for the most part.

Coach Lashmet is counting on his boys to bounce back from this heart-breaking defeat as they did from the season's opener with Bremen. They should take Tom Byrne—Oak Lawn quarterback—and company into camp for the second league win.

Byrne has developed into one of the great backs in the conference. He can not only pass, but runs well to either side and runs the team.

He has been the big reason for the Spartans' two consecutive wins in conference play. Fred Parks feels that Byrne will make the difference in future Oak Lawn wins.

This is the man the Knights will have to stop.

Thus far—the Knights from New Lenox have had good luck stopping the club with the outstanding quarterback. They stopped the Rich Rocket, who sports the classy Zadek.

The Knights' line has been sturdy and hard fighting over the past three weeks. If they play the same brand of ball they should be able to take the Spartans.

However, according to reports the Spartans have vastly improved with every contest and some observers feel that Blue Island could not beat the boys from Oak Lawn by any, 20-0, score.

This game figures to be a close fight.

Don't be misled by the Oak Lawn drubbing of Bremen. For Evergreen had taken Oak Lawn. Now Bremen up and beats Evergreen soundly. Whew!

This is another football game with two well balanced elevens. Yes, it could be a run-away, but the Knights will be hard to steam-roll.

Now we have the question—Can the Knights win this match game?

Backwood Trails

by Art Schumann

If you think you have seen large outboard motors up to now, wait until the 1960 models are shown. Look for increased power along the entire line. Although horsepower has been advanced among the top five outboard manufacturers, the power plants will have better fuel economy. A strong emphasis on carburation and metering devices in the new motors will insure maximum performance per gallon.

There are many other improvements which have been added to the 1960 line. Boatmen may expect a choice of several propellers with different pitches to meet varying motoring requirements, larger motors featuring heavy-duty generators in 12 volt capacities to meet the heavy load demands of today's electronically - equipped boats, underwater units, which have been streamlined to reduce drag and cavitation, single or double lever controls available in some models, fiberglass motor shrouds to cut down maintenance and muffle engine sounds, this should make the new outboards quieter than ever.

Still other features will be cylinder and crankshaft counterbalancing, combined with the adaptation of airplane type floating rubber-mounted powerheads which will insure minimum vibrations, for the first time small diesels will be available. The one-cylinder units will be made of lightweight aluminum alloy.

The outboard manufacturers this coming year are concentrating on improved design and dropping the flamboyant colors and rampant chrome of '59 models. With the high-horsepower outboards remote steering is becoming a must. The new larger power plants are not designed for steering from the engine position.

Too much horsepower is involved to make simple stick control safe. For a special preview of the 1960 outboard motor market, get a look at the October issue of Popular Boating. The way the outboard motor and boating market is skyrocketing, in a few years "trade-ins" on boats and motors will become as common as the trading of cars today.

DEER SEASON UNDERWAY

Today the first round of the 1959 deer season ends in Illinois. The kill by bow and arrow appears to be light again this year. The majority of the corn was still standing in good deer territory and along with the heavy foliage still clinging in the woods afforded the deer fine cover.

Although many deer were seen by hunters it was generally at distances too great to shoot or by the deer standing so close to the corn that one jump took them into the corn and safety.

At the end of this month the shotgun season will open. With the majority of the corn picked by that time the shotguns should have a decided advantage over the early season bowhunters.

Fall fishing can be good or bad, for days fish will lie in the shallows, spooking at the shadow of your lure before it plops in the water. Then, they disappear from the shallows. To where? That's the big question, usually its a secret fishing hole. To find it is not always easy, but one of the best methods to try is used by our good friend Homer Circle of Heddons who uses this system:

First troll a deep-going lure. Try the drop-offs first, then the channels, then the deepest, darkest hole in the lake. If you know where a spring boils up, its a promise-

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

BY DEAN DALLAS, Semmler Press Sports Editor

It is high time that recognition came to some of the stalwart performers in the SW Suburban Conference. The selection of Bill Seavertson as the prep lineman of the week in the Chicago American was the first such honor to come to Lincoln-Way high school in its short history.

Bill was back at this business of a tower on offense and defense as the loud speaker outcracked the sound of rain, spinning car wheels, and other distractions at the Lincoln-Way Carl Sandburg, "Seavertson makes the tackle" or Seavertson helps out on the tackle."

If one was to view the pictures of the Rich contest and again this one of the Carl Sandburg game they would realize that the Knights are no longer the patsies of the SWS football league. They are arriving! That line, sparked by Seavertson, is doing a yeoman job. Ed Smith, Don Carter, Larry Wennlund, and others deserve much commendations for a rough and ready outfit from New Lenox.

The Knights are 1-2, but no team can accept the Saturday afternoon with them as a breather or even an easy contest. Rich did. Never had a chance!

Coach Jonas Lashmet has welded together a unit from vets and youngsters which could well be the first winning Lincoln-Way football squad. They are currently 2-2 on the season.

Lashmet's job is difficult due to the fact that 23 boys came out for varsity football practice. That is the smallest squad in the DWS Conference. Injuries helped to weaken the squad for the Sandburg contest.

Lashmet has brought his boys from the "agreement to losing" to the spirit of winning. The Knights are a team of strength in the SWS.

Many have been saying it, but I'm still to be convinced that Bremen is the class of the SWS. Yes, the Braves are big, burly and at times a little "rough". However, they are much like the weather.

Possibly, the drubbing that Oak Lawn handed the Redmen caused Callan and the boys to recognize that just having the potential is enough to win the contest.

Of course, Callan has known this all along. His record will prove this. It seems that Oak Lawn taught the Braves that previous record and beef are not enough to make the difference.

Evergreen Park proved no match for the Redmen, when revived. So—the Reavis contest should be a real contest.

Rich Norbut seems to be healthy at this time for he scored all of the touchdowns the Braves counted—four of them.

He has shown good ability prior to this game, but had to be used sparingly. It may be that the Braves just needed this extra punch.

The Redmen from Midlothian will probably give some indication of the title potential in the Reavis game. If the Bremen team scores its third victory—they will move into the picture.

Carl Sandburg and coach Joe Devine are a tougher and tougher looking team every week. They managed to take an up and coming Lincoln-Way squad last Saturday, 6-0.

The Rich win over Sandburg looms more and more a fortunate win. Tricky, Jerry McBride, Jim Jeffries, and that line should give a good account of themselves at the Orland Park Bluff on Saturday when they take on winless Homewood-Flossmoor.

Devine, usually gloomy about his team's prospects, has not changed his attitude about the title chances for the Eagles.

Sandburg has a big, strong, and a fast enough team to win the conference. Devine has juggled a good amount of depth with results of victories. In fact, Joe has a squad that is interested in playing hard football. They want to play and win.

The Eagles appear to be in a good spot to give Rich the challenge for the title this season. The Rockets didn't have an easy time beating the Rams last week. The game was plenty close.

Devine and his boys have not brought home the crown, but they can be counted on to remain in the thick of the fight for the SWS diadem.

Strange business the SWS. It is getting somewhat like the pros—I mean only in the games won and lost. You don't dare pick a winner. A team can make a big splash and then get flattened the next week. So—it goes!

When you get the first strike, triangulate the area by picking out three different landmarks—one off each stern point, the third off the bow. Fish it out well, this could be the banana you've been waiting for. What's more, you can return to your secret fishing hole undisturbed because only you know the combination.

Seavertson Prep Lineman Of Week

Bill Seavertson, Lincoln-Way Community High School senior, was named the prep lineman of the week by the Chicago American daily newspaper last week.

Bill's selection was made after his stellar play in the smashing upset which the Knights pulled on the Rich High School footballers a week ago at New Lenox.

Bill is a 170-lb., 5' 10" fellow, who plays guard on the offense and linebacker on the defense.

Coach Jonas Lashmet and staff conservatively estimate that Bill either made or was in on some 26 tackles in the Rich game.

It appeared at one point in the contest that a swift Rich back was about to break away in the patented Rich fashion, but Seavertson raced up and caught him from behind with a diving tackle.

Lincoln-Way was the first team,

Bloom of Chicago Heights included, that was able to move through the middle of the Rich line. The Knights moved the ball over the right side—on that side Seavertson was the guard.

Bill, Coach Lashmet, and superintendent A. Hunter Chapman, attend the quarterback luncheon in Chicago's loop as the guest of the American on Monday of this week.

Dinner Proceeds Go Toward Fund For Community Center

by MARGOT BARTNIK
Sycamore 8-7742

Preparations are being made for the spaghetti dinner to be held Oct. 25 at the VFW hall, 18147 Harwood ave., Homewood. All proceeds from the event will be used to start a building fund for a Community Center. Dinners will be served between 4 and 7 pm.

A committee meeting on the dinner was held Oct. 13, at Willowview school. Executive meetings are held at 1 pm. on the Thursday prior to the regular meeting date, which is the first Wednesday of each month, at the Willowview school. The women are treating themselves to a night out on Dec. 10. They plan a "dutch treat dinner." The place to be announced later. At the last regular meeting of the Women's club on Oct. 7, Mrs. Neline Manthey gave a fascinating demonstration of gift wrapping. There were approximately 60 members and guests present.

UNITED CHRISTIAN CHURCH
The nominating committee of the United Christian church has reported to the congregation in advance of the meeting of the congregation to be held Oct. 18, in the Willowview school. Those to be elected for one year terms are: Chairman, Frank Miller, vice chairman, Edwin Raddatz, Financial secretary, William Lindecker, Treasurer, John Cox, church clerk-historian, Nancy Polito. Others elected for from one to three year terms were: Elders: Richard Bagwell, William Marquardson, Ray Hoewing, Zenon Sykuta, Frank Miller; trustees, Carl Timmerman, Robert Brown, and Donald Wilson. Deacons: L. L. Phelps, Robert Landeen, John Nicholson, Art Ebert, Herbert Groff, Norman Olson, Richard Armistead, Charles Van Horn, George Shaffner and Donald Segin; deaconesses, Mrs. Fred Wedderspoon, Mrs. Ray Hoewing, Mrs. Ida Jones, Mrs. Richard Bagwell, Mrs. Norman Nelson, and Mrs. Edward Oliver. Nominations will be opened from the floor providing the consent of the nominee has been obtained.

Dr. Donald Salmon, head of the Department of Evangelism for the Christian churches visited the community recently to study progress and problems of the church here. He was accompanied by Dr. J. J. Van Boskirk, and also by the Rev. T. William Simer. They enjoyed an evening meal in the parsonage with the Pews.

The church will be holding a fellowship supper in the Willowview school Oct. 18 at 5 pm. It will be a picnic type lunch with every family bringing their own food. Beverage and desert will be provided. Because of the shortage of tables and chairs, any families having card tables or folding chairs, are asked to bring them in case they are needed. Along with the program of fun will be the church's first election.

The Naomi Circle met at Mrs. John Cox's home, 18051 Baker, Oct. 14. At present, they are making stuffed animals for children's hospitals. The Johanna Circle met at Mrs. Charles VanHorn's home, 17850 Baker, on the same day. Their projects are also making stuffed animals and selling Christmas cards. The Esther Circle is making stuffed animals and selling candy in attractive canisters. They met Oct. 13, at Mrs. Norman Olson's home, at 18125 Thomas. All three groups make monthly visits to the Tinley Park State hospital.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN
Rev. Henry F. Meyer is pastor of St. John's Lutheran church on 183rd st., near Crawford. Services are held at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. The 9 o'clock service is in German and the 11 o'clock service in English.

Sunday school teachers were inducted in the 11 o'clock service Sunday, Oct. 11.

The Ladies Aid meeting was held Wednesday evening, Oct. 14, in the school basement.

ST. JOSEPH MISSION CHURCH
Masses will begin earlier each Sunday to facilitate parking and to allow more time between masses so one member has time to return home and allow other members of the family to attend the next mass. Rev. Robert J. Loftus announced at the masses Oct. 4, that masses will be at 7:30 and 8:30 a.m. They were previously at 7:45 and 8:30 a.m. Any boys from sixth grade up, who are interested in becoming altar boys can contact Bill Schomburg, 4645 183rd pl.

Classes in religion for high school students attending public schools are held Tuesday evenings at 7:30 pm. in St. Joseph's school in Homewood.

Tickets for the Fall Festival, to be held at Olympia Fields Country club, are now available. The revenue from this dance will be used to pay in part the salaries of the lay teachers at St. Joseph's school.

JUNIOR CHAMBER COMMERCE
The Jaycees wish to remind everyone to purchase tickets to the Halloween costume ball, as soon as possible. The dance is to be held Oct. 31, at the VFW Hall in Homewood. Tickets are $3 per couple with prizes for the best costumes and door prizes. FIRE DEPT. WOMEN'S AUX.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Volunteer Fire department invites all women to attend a social meeting Oct. 21, at the firehouse.

BAPTIST CHURCH
The City Council unanimously approved the permanent location of the Baptist church, at a special meeting Oct. 9. The Rev. Clarence Reaka announced that plans are in the making to widen the driveway and also to remove partitions to enlarge the meeting place. The upstairs will be remodeled to provide additional space for Sunday school, and a permanent sign will replace the present one. A business meeting was held Oct. 14.

A business meeting is held once each month on the second Wednesday. Beginning this last Wednesday, Oct. 14, a definite lesson instruction on prayers for children of parents who attend prayer meetings, was introduced. This instruction will be given each Wednesday at 7:30 pm. by the pastor's wife, Mrs. Clarence Reaka. A very interesting method of teaching called "flanel-graph" is being employed. Flannel figures are placed upon a large piece of flannel to portray different scenes. The flannel has an adhesive quality and this enables the instructor to move the smaller pieces from place to place, thus illustrating the lesson. For the information of any newcomers, times of the Sunday services are as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a.m., morning worship, 11 a.m., and Sunday evening worship at 7 pm.

PERSONALS
Margaret Estelle, 7 lbs., 6 oz.

was born to former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Korrer, Sept. 25, in Fond du Lac, Wis., where the Korrers now reside.

Desiree and Michele Quinlan, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Quinlan, 18110 Baker, celebrated their birthdays together on Oct. 4 at a large family dinner party in their home.

Mrs. James Quinlan, 18110 Baker, recently was appointed to the board of directors of the Homewood League of Women Voters. She is also revenue chairman. A pot luck dinner, to be held sometime in January, is being planned by the League.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Otto, of 4725 182nd pl., will have a good sized family in the near future. Mr. Otto's two nephews, six and five years respectively, and his niece, 2 1/2 years old, are coming to live with the Otto's and their son for an indefinite period.

Danny Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Simon, 18151 Patrick, celebrated his ninth birthday Oct. 6. The family surprised him by having his schoolmate Marc Bartnik, arrive just in time to join them all at the birthday dinner. His mother, Mrs. Larry Simon, celebrated her birthday the following day, Oct. 7.

Mr. John Tranka, father of Mrs. Arthur Ebert, 4441 180th st., passed away Wednesday, Oct. 7 in Brookfield. The funeral was held Saturday, Oct. 10.

On Oct. 2 Paul Pew, son of Rev. and Mrs. Wendell Pew, 4511 W. 182nd st., celebrated his third birthday at a party held in his honor. Guests were: Mrs. Frank Miller and Deann and Keith; Mrs. E. H. Sonme with Glen and Janet; Mrs. Frank Kantor with Dennis; and Mary Lee, who is Paul's sister.

Mary Lee Pew had her own birthday party Oct. 6, when she "turned five." Her guests were Debbie Van Horn, Mrs. R. Bagwell with Maureen and John; Shirley and Dennis Kantor; Link Hoewing; Sharon Deem, Cathy Martin, Karen Sliwinski, and Mary Lee's brother Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, 4745 179th pl., returned recently from an extensive vacation with their two children, Bobby, 5, and Andy, 3 years old. They spent some time visiting Mrs. Campbell's parents in Orange, Cal., approximately 25 miles south of Los Angeles. Disneyland was only ten miles away, so they had ample opportunity to compare this fabulous park as it is today, with what it was like in 1955 when they visited it only three weeks after the opening.

Mrs. Campbell's mother had never seen three year old Sandy, and had seen Bobby last when he was only one and a half years old so it was a very exciting visit. On their homeward trip, the family saw Grand Canyon and Hoover Dam. The children were admirable little travelers, and the entire vacation was enjoyable.

Geraldine Maslan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maslan, of 18701 Baker, was feted at her 5th birthday party Monday, Oct. 5. Her mother prepared a birthday lunch for Judy and her friends: Jackie Palumbo, Amy Ziteak and Amy's younger sister.

A hot dog lunch was the beginning of a birthday party for Jacqueline Palumbo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Palumbo, 18717 Baker, who was five years old Sept. 29. The children who helped her celebrate this gay occasion were Patty, Peggy and Michael Quigley; Geraldine Maslan, and Jacqueline's cousin, Steven Hughes of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White, 17827 Baker, recently drove their house guests, Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph Franco of Mexico City, to New York where they saw them embark for Paris, France. The Rudolph's sailed aboard the United States on Sept. 26, after a gay party in their stateroom. After wishing their friends "bon voyage", Mr. and Mrs. White did some sight seeing in New York city and attended four Broadway shows: "Flower Drum Song", "J. B.", "Destry Rides Again" and "Plume de ma Tante." After a wonderful few days, they drove leisurely back home, stopped at several places in New York state to visit friends and relatives.

Coincidentally, Mr. and Mrs. James Nordgren, 18131 Anthony, were in New York at the same time as the Whites. Mr. Nordgren spent a week in Bermuda on a business trip and upon his return to New York, was met by Mrs. Nordgren. They spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday sightseeing and attended two Broadway plays, "Music Man," and "Destry Rides Again" before flying back to Chicago Sunday.

Shirley Kantor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kantor, 18211 Anthony, celebrated her 6th birthday at a party Oct. 2. Mary Lee and Paul Pew, Donald and Vicki Foster, and Shirley's brother, Dennis helped celebrate.

A birthday party for Anne Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cox, 18051 Baker, will be held Friday, Oct. 16, when Anne will be seven years old. Those attending her party will be: Ingrid Ammondson, Roxanne Heist and Linn Johnson, Dianna Marquardsen, Mary McDonald, Patricia Meyer, Margaret Murray, Bonnie Olson, Mary Pfundstein, Lynn Schumacher, Barbara Smith, Gail Thompson, Susan and Cheryl Moore, Susan and Leslie Roll, and Coleen McCarthy.

About 27,000 small boats operate in San Francisco Bay.

Homer Farewell Party Is Given For Mrs. Dale Sr.

By Elizabeth Anderson

Mrs. John Hasibar entertained a group of about 20 women neighbors at her beautiful home on Bruce Rd. Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Charles Dale Sr., who has sold her home and will be moving from the community after residing here for more than 30 years.

A tasty ham dinner was served at 1 o'clock, after which Mrs. Dale opened the many pretty handkerchiefs which the guests had brought. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Carl Wegner of New Lenox.

Games occupied the remainder of the afternoon, with prizes going to the winners.

Mrs. Dale will spend some time visiting with relatives in Canada before taking up her residence in Wilmington with Mrs. Belmore, an old-time friend.

The McCreer family from Le-mont have purchased the Dale home and expect to move in soon.

Mrs. Frank Paul, Cedar Rd., entertained recently at an afternoon party in honor of Mrs. Marie Maughn of Florida who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jack Reiter. About a dozen ladies ladies from Homer and Lockport were present. Following a dainty luncheon, the afternoon was spent in fortune telling.

The Couples' Club met in the Ted Grimm home for a hayrack ride Friday evening after which they stopped at the Jerome Pad-dock's for refreshments and routine business. This was their regular monthly get-together.

The P. F. young people met at the church and went in a group to the Roller Skating party sponsored by the Country Chicks 4-H Club at the Lockport rink Thursday evening. This was their regular semi-monthly "fun nite." They held a meeting at the church last Sunday evening.

Don't forget the choir-benefit concert at the Homer Church Sun-day evening, Oct. 25, when there will be approximately an hour of vocal and instrumental solos and duets of both sacred and secular music, followed by a social hour.

Joseph Lewandowski, 159th St., is now operating the Kelvin Grove bakery at the Lockport shopping center.

Mrs. Ray Carlson was a Chicago shopper Friday.

Funeral services were held at the Sonntag, Burgess and Wylie chapel Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8, for Mrs. Elizabeth Erickson, aged 90, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lester Love, in Joliet on the preceding Monday. The Rev. Donn E. Wright officiated, with interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Erickson was born in Homer, her parents being the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Reiter Sr. She has lived most of her married life in Joliet.

Besides the daughter, she is survived by seven grandchildren and two brothers, Edward of Florida and Peter of Homer. Her husband and a son preceded her in death.

H. Harmon, 143d and Cedar Rd., has been issued a permit for an $11,450 residence in the Reed sub-division, Homer twp.

Marion Green Top Governor, Holstein Friesian cow, has won fame for herself and her owner, J. Y. Parker, by producing 14,050 pounds of milk and 559 pounds of butter-fat in 344 days on twice daily milkings. She is a 6-year-old.

Mrs. F. J. Paddock, Mrs. Vera Waldvogel, Mrs. James Elvig and Mrs. John White attended the executive board meeting of the Lockport Council of Church Women at the Fairmont Methodist Church Monday afternoon, Oct. 5. This board is comprised of the heads of the women's group, the pas-tor's wives and one delegate from each church in the area, besides the Council officer.

The Homer Fire Flies 4-H Club will sponsor a hayrack ride Saturday evening, Oct. 17. They will meet at the church at 7 o'clock; a fee of 50 cents will be charged, the proceeds going to the Francis 4-H Show Ground fund. Refresh-ments following the ride, are be-ing planned.

Delegates were chosen Sunday at the morning service at Homer Church to attend the Central As-sociation meeting of Congrega-tional Churches at Brazil, Ind., this Saturday afternoon, Oct. 17.

Randall Storm who has been quite ill during the past week, was re-moved to Silver Cross Hospital Friday for observation.

Jerome Paddock is recovering from a gall-bladder attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bell of Michigan called on relatives in their vicinity Saturday of last week. They are cousins of the Wells and Ott families, his parents having been Sherman Bell and Emma Ott both former Homerites.

WILLIAM F. WHITESIDE
COOK COUNTY ASSOC. FARM
ADVISER

Albert Reeves, Orland Park, was elected president of the South Cook 4-H Fair Association board of directors, at their recent meeting. Henry Veldhuizen, Sr., Glenwood, was re-elected vice-president, and Russell Bettenhausen, Orland Park, is the newly elected secretary. Mel Keup, Tinley Park, was re-elected treasurer. Former president Floyd Adair, Chicago Heights, and former secretary Herb Kohl, Matteson, retired after serving a combined total of 18 years on the board. Herb was secretary for 10 years, and Floyd president for eight years. The County Extension staff, 4-H members and 4-H leaders owe a great deal to these two men for their many years of service to 4-H Club work. The fine tradition of 4-H Club work is built on the hard work and cooperative spirit of men like Herb and Floyd.

With corn picker rolling in the fields when the weather permits, comes the danger of injury, or even death. If you play the horses and lose, it is money down the drain.

but if you "play" the picker and lose, you lost both money, time and possibly a finger, arm, hand, or even your life. It is never a safe bet to adjust the corn picker when it is running.

On July 1, an amendment to the Illinois Agriculture law became effective. This amendment requires egg dealers to have licenses and to grade and label eggs; however, farmers can still sell eggs produced from their flocks directly to the consumer without the requirement of labeling, grading, and candling. This does not mean that the producer should try to sell poor eggs. In fact, he should sell good eggs, but is not required to purchase a license to do so.

Labor income of Illinois farmers has not risen as fast as labor income of factory workers in the same areas of the state. This statement comes from John Herbst, Illinois Agricultural Economist; however, farmers are becoming more efficient. Output per man in agriculture has increased more rapidly than output per man in industry.

A businessman can often make money by spending money. And farming is a business. Most reliable guide in making these investments is accurate farm records. George B. Whitman, farm economist at the University of Illinois, says the college offers a good farm record book that you may want to use. It's a big help in analyzing the farm business and in furnishing dependable records for income tax and social security reports. Your farm adviser will be glad to tell you about it.

Funeral Services Held In Minnesota

Funeral services for Gilbert Borstad, 60, who died suddenly in Mokena last Friday night, were held at Alexandria, Minn., yesterday.

Mr. Borstad, who roomed at the Howard Schieblch home on First st., was discovered dead in his bed by Mokena police officer, Joseph Heim, when a friend of the deceased reported he was unable to awaken him. He succumbed of natural causes, Coroner Willard G. Blood reported Saturday, and had been dead about six hours when discovered.

The body was taken to the Blood and Grant Funeral home in Joliet and shipped to Alexandria Tuesday, on the request of his sister, Mrs. Henry Nodland.

Borstad was a construction worker with Blaine Saxton of Mokena. He is survived by a son; an ex-wife in Chicago, and one other sister in Minnesota, also one brother, in Oregon.

Carl Sandburg Holding Open House Tonight

Teachers and members of the Carl Sandburg High school PTA are joining together to welcome all parents back to school at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 15 at 133 and LaGrange road (US 45).

Mrs. Rudolph Lavine, hospital-ity chairman, and her committee will be at the door to greet both new and old members and friends of PTA.

After a short business meeting, all parents will participate in a shortened version of the regular daytime classroom schedule. If you are parents of freshmen and have not had the opportunity of visiting the school in the past, you will see the modern building and facilities which are available. Meeting teachers is also an important part of the program.

Mrs. Fred Loth, program chairman, reports that in lieu of an invocation, Miss Lee Heinen will sing Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer", accompanied by Miss Carole Petrak.

Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Clifford Aulwurm, social chairman and her committee.

Orland Grade School Plans To Form Band

A concert by the Sandburg high school band, under the direction of Milton Potter, was staged at the Orland Park grade school last Friday to stimulate interest in the formation of a grade school band.

Pupils in grades three through eight are to be given tests soon to determine their capabilities in playing band instruments.

After this Neil Dunlap, who has worked with band groups in the community, will meet with parents interested in having their children play in the proposed school band.

According to school officials all work connected with the band would be outside of school hours and the cost of group lessons and band practice would be paid by parents. It was estimated that the cost might run $1.50 a week but it was believed that the cost could be reduced if a sufficient number turned out for the band.

Royal Neighbors Hold Convention

The Royal Neighbors of America Will county convention will be held Oct. 19, in the Odd Fellows hall, Cass st., Joliet. There will be afternoon and evening sessions.

Any from Frankfort wishing to attend the convention and desiring transportation, may call Clara Bennett, Frankfort 5440.

The October meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 21, at the Frankfort village hall.

New Supply Enables Gas Co. To End Waiting List

Northern Illinois Gas company's new natural gas supply from Midwestern Gas Transmission Company has been turned on Oct. 7. The new pipeline from Tennessee to Joliet will provide NL-Gas with 60 million cubic feet of additional natural gas daily.

In addition to this supply, Northern Illinois Gas will receive 50 million cubic feet of natural gas daily from Northern Natural Gas Company later this month thru an East Dubuque to Des Plaines pipeline which is now being tested.

These two new gas supplies enabled NL-Gas to send out about 126,500 space heat authorizations which has brought the company's residential waiting list up to date.

Natural gas now is also available on a limited basis to non-residential customers. All customers desiring to install gas heating equipment must apply in writing. NL-Gas further emphasized that every gas heat applicant must in turn receive written authorization from the company before installing heating equipment.

When total connections of presently authorized gas heat installations are made, more than 400,000 of NL-Gas' 650,000 customers will be heating with natural gas. That will be an increase of more than 50 per cent of the total gas heating customers of a year ago. And it will be about 12 times the 1946 total when restriction first went into effect.

Arrest Two From Mokena

Two Mokena youths were arrested Saturday night on complaint of Larry Burmnett, 312 Lewis road, Joliet, who claims they beat him and drove away in his car. The two under arrest admit taking the car but said they intended to leave it parked in front of the home of a friend of Burmnett in Mokena—as a joke. They deny having struck Burmnett.

The two arrested and taken to the Will county jail are Jack Armin, 20, now on probation after having pled guilty to a petty larceny charge several months ago growing out of stripping parts from a car stolen by another youth, and Kenneth Oldendorf, 20, now home on leave from the navy.

Armin and Oldendorf told County Probation Officer Paul Ohman that Oldendorf was seeking a ride to California where he is stationed. They had heard Burmnett was going to the west coast, they said, and when they further learned he was asleep in his car in VanHorn woods they went there to talk with him. The windows of the car were closed and the doors locked. The pair tapped on the windows they said to awaken Burmnett. When the latter awoke, according to the suspects story, he opened a door, jumped out of the car and ran away. When he didn't return they decided to drive his car into Mokena. Burmnett claims the two dragged him out of the car and beat him.

Armin, who had just received permission to drive one night a week, took the wheel and started out but not for any distance before crashing into a tree, damaging the car and suffering cuts and bruises to his face. Oldendorf was driving Armin's car. Armin is charged with violating probation, Oldendorf with disorderly conduct.

Sandburg Parents Confer With College Counsellors

Parents of junior and senior students at Carl Sandburg high school will have an opportunity to get the latest information on the requirements of 40 of the nation's leading colleges and Universities at a specially arranged college night, Thursday, Oct. 22.

Ray Bentz, guidance director and coordinator of the college night activities, sent invitations to a representative group of schools that appeal widely to the Sandburg student body. Among these schools are top universities from the east and midwest as well as the leading liberal arts schools and technical schools.

The group of college admissions counsellors have been invited to a dinner at the school beginning at 6:30 p.m., prior to the 8 p.m. beginning for the three half-hour sessions scheduled with parents. At the dinner, the counsellors will be advised concerning the complexion of the Sandburg community and its educational program.

The entire program has been arranged in cooperation with the Association of College Admissions Counsellors, an organization to which all of the colleges that will be represented belong.

A college night has not been held for several years at Sandburg, with all of the interviewing being done during the school day between student and admissions counsellor.

New Lenox Boy Wins Recognition For Scholarship

Don Anderson, spring graduate of Lincoln-Way Community High school and daughter of Mr. and Donna Anderson, spring graduate of Lincoln-Way Community High school and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Anderson, has been selected as a James scholar from the incoming freshman class at the University of Illinois.

A James scholar is a superior student who ranks in the upper three per cent of the incoming class. Most of the students in this three per cent are named James scholars.

This group will receive a special curricular arrangement to match their superior ability.

James students are selected on basis of high school records, results of college board and other exams, recommendations of high school principals and teachers, and personal interviews.

NEW LIBRARY HOURS

Starting Oct. 14, the Mokena library will be opened every Wednesday, from 3 to 4:30 p.m., and from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

To Widen West Avenue

Widening of West avenue in the vicinity of 153rd street was discussed at length by the Orland Park village board at its regular meeting Monday night.

Traffic is heavy on West avenue and the street is so narrow at that point that a bottleneck is formed. Mayor W. R. Schussler, Jr., is to confer with railroad and county officials in an effort to get something to relieve the condition.

A plat for a subdivision planned for the south side of 143rd street, east of the village, was referred by the board to the village planning commission. There are 90 acres in the proposed subdivision and they would be divided into 140 lots. The matter was taken up with the village board because it has jurisdiction over subdivisions within a mile and a half radius of the municipality.

Sewer plans also were discussed but they are not yet advanced to the point where costs can be estimated with any accuracy.

HAM 'N YAMS--are said to be on the menu of the ninth annual harvest festival to be staged by the Carl Sandburg PTA unit the evening of Oct. 24, at the school. The committee members here completing plans for the affair are (l to r): Mrs. Charles Scheurer, Palos Park, Mrs. Arthur Elkin, Palos Heights, Mrs. Robert Heyden, Palos Park, Mrs. John Alfrevic, Palos Park, and Mrs. Donald Maue, Orland Park, president of the unit. The public is invited. (Jon Miller photo)

Couple Wed At Candlelight Ceremony In Nazarene Church

At a 7 p.m. candlelight ceremony in the Tinley Park Church of the Nazarene, Miss Jeanette Gustafson, daughter of Mrs. Frank Gustafson of Oak Forest, became the bride of Paul F. Gorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleland Gorman of Posen. The double ring ceremony on Saturday Oct. 3, was performed by Rev. Dallas Mucci, pastor.

A bouquet of white gladiolas and a double candelabra graced the altar. Music for the ceremony was provided by the bride's piano teacher, Rollin Johnson of Oak Forest. He also accompanied soloist, Mrs. Francis Jones who sang "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Harold Gustafson, brother, escorted the bride to the altar. She was lovely in a white floor length organza gown with chapel train. Lace over-lay, seed pearls and sequins were used as accents. Her tiny seed-pearl tiara caught the illusion veil which she wore. Her white butterfly rose and stephanotis bouquet was centered with an orchid.

Miss Kay Simmons, maid of honor, wore a cerise satin dress with matching headband, blusher-veil and slippers. She carried a white rose bouquet.

Sandra Sue Sullivan, flower-girl, was pretty in a pink nylon fluff with embroidered overskirt and tiny hat to match. In her white gloved hands she carried a natural wood basket filled with pink roses. Jerry Gustafson, nephew of the bride, served as ring-bearer.

Carl Gorman, brother of the groom, served as best man with ushers Gerald Farquhar of Bourbonnais and Frank McDaniel, of Tinley Park.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gustafson chose a gown of blue crepe accented in white and wore navy accessories. Mrs. Gorman was attired in a navy blue ensemble. Both mothers wore a rose corsage.

The reception was held in the social hall of Harvey Nazarene church following the ceremony. Two special guests were the maternal grandmother of the groom, Mrs. A. G. Danner and a great aunt of the bride, Mrs. Adeline Olson, Minneapolis, Minn.

Serving the beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake and punch were Barbara McCutchen and Audrey Johnson, friends of the bride. Also assisting at the reception were Mrs. George Freed, Mrs. Charles Caringer and Mrs. Elmer Smith.

Following a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Gorman are making their home in Oak Forest.

Woman's Club Gets Idea on Yuletide Decor

"Ideas For Christmas" is the topic of Mrs. T. W. Shelley, when she gives a demonstration of decorations for Christmas time, made before your eyes, at the meeting of the Orland Park Woman's club, Wednesday, October 21st, 1:30 p.m. at the Community Center Foundation.

Mrs. Shelley, who resides in Chicago, is a past board member of the Garden Clubs of Illinois; organizer and first president of the Brainerd Garden club; Gardens chairman of Third District, IFWC; Regional chairman of the Highway Beautification Department of the Garden Clubs of Illinois. This department is now active in landscaping the toll roads of the State. She has had wide experience in presenting demonstrations on flower arranging and in decorations for special occasions.

Following the program, refreshments will be served by Mesdames James Husak, Stanley Ray, Karl Ekberg and Ray Barry.

Auxiliary Plans Party For Vets At Tinley Hospital

At the meeting of the Frankfort American Legion Auxiliary last Thursday, plans were made for a party to be held in the near future for veterans in the Tinley Park State hospital.

The Auxiliary will have a candy and popcorn booth at the Legion Talent Show. Members are requested to submit donations.

The mystery gift was won by Mrs. Melvin Eastman.

Mrs. Dan Hecht presided at the business session and hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Charles McManimen and Mrs. Warren Anderson.

BAKE SALE

A bake sale will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 16, at the Frankfort Hardware store, given by the Good Shepherd church Ladies Aid.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Bode of Central Ave., Tinley Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sylvia, to Mr. Wilbert Yunker of Bancroft, Neb. No date has been set for the wedding.

ANNUAL BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON HELD BY LADIES AID

The Zion Lutheran Ladies of Tinley Park Aid held their annual birthday luncheon at the October meeting, which was attended by 35 members and eight guests.

Tables were beautifully decorated, depicting the four seasons. This was a pot-luck luncheon with birthday cake being served by the refreshment committee. Chairman was Carolyn Deck; other members were Loretta Ercius, Kathryn Hirsch and Anna Bettenhausen. Games were played and prizes won by Alice Propp, Ethel Rauch and Florence Rensink.

Slides were shown of the building of the present church edifice. A brief meeting followed the program.

Final plans were made for the annual turkey dinner to be held Oct. 28, from 5 to 8 p.m.

A baby shower will be held at the next meeting for the benefit of the Lutheran Home Finding Society. The birthday money collected at this meeting will also be donated.

The Sew and Sew club will meet Wednesday Oct. 14, at the home of Mrs. Jean Vonesch at 1:30 p.m.

VFW Auxiliary To Hold Rummage Sale Oct. 17

A rummage sale sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to the V.F.W. Post #2791 will be held Saturday, Oct. 17, beginning at 9 a.m. in the post club house 172nd and Oak Park Ave., Tinley Park. Members are urged to deliver their rummage donations to the club by Friday evening, Oct. 16.

The regular business meeting of the Auxiliary was held Oct. 6 with Mrs. William Houle presiding.

The Sr. vice president, Mrs. Alvin Miller, reported on the recent State V. F. W. kick-off banquet held in the Grand Ballroom of the Palmer House Sept. 19. The National V. F. W. Commander, Louis G. Feldman of Pennsylvania was the speaker. Mrs. Al Miller and Mr. and Mrs. William Houle attended. Mrs. Houle and Mrs. Robert Enzenbacher were elected delegates to the Grand Army of the Republic Memorial Association of Cook county.

A toy demonstration will be held Oct. 20, beginning at 8:15 p.m.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO HOLD TOY DEMONSTRATION

On Wednesday, Oct. 21, the American Legion Auxiliary of Tinley Park, Post 615, will have a toy demonstration at the Legion hall. This will be a timely showing of Christmas toys and games for all children from infants to teenagers.

After the demonstration everyone is invited to examine the toys on display.

All friends and neighbors are invited to come and shop this easy way. Orders will be taken that night, and delivered to the home C.O.D. at a date that is convenient to the shopper.

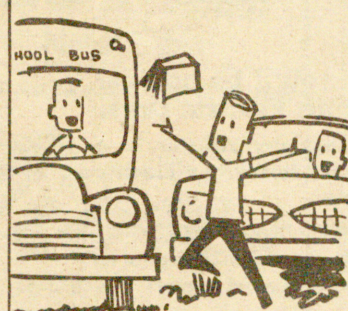

Refreshments will be served after the demonstration. Starting time is 8 p.m.

Members and friends are invited. Refreshments will be served.

The annual 16th District V. F. W. kick-off dinner-dance was held Oct. 10 at Chicago Heights V. F. W. Post. Those attending from Tinley Park were: The commander Mr. and Mrs. Steve Rourke, the president, Mrs. Houle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Alvin Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Locbert, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Smanioti, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tokarz and Mr. and Mrs. John Wojciekowski.

Game night is held every Wednesday beginning at 8 p.m. in the Tinley Park V. F. W. Post. The public is invited.

Community Center Holds First Family Night Of Season Oct. 21

The first Family Night for 1959-60 year at the Community Center Foundation, Southwest Highway at 127th st., Palos Park, will be held Wednesday, Oct. 21, at 8 p.m. Paul Sanders will talk on his recent experiences in Europe and in Russia and show slides taken on his tour. A coffee hour will follow the program. The first meeting of the Foundation Associates will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 25. The gift shop has many new and interesting items, including bird feeders made in the Center workshop, gifts from foreign countries wild homemade plum jam and other jams and pickles made in the Foundation kitchen. Sale of these items helps carry on the work of the Foundation.

On Monday nights there are ceramic classes from 7:30 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. landscape painting for as long as the weather permits. Also on Tuesday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. there is a general painting class and on Wednesdays, 1:30 to 3 p.m., a mosaic class. A ceramics class is also held on Thursdays from 1:30 to 3 p.m. and on Fridays 1:30 to 3 p.m., principles of design (batik). Beginning and advanced students are welcome in all of these classes. Mrs. David Hurwich of Palos Park will teach the Monday night class and Mrs. Marvin Kutchinski will be the instructor for the other classes.

Other interesting instruction classes planned are woodworking, 8 to 10 p.m. on Wednesday nights, if there are enough requests. All interested are requested to contact the Foundation, Gibson 8-0780, also a photography class. Anyone having photographic equipment no longer in use, the Foundation would welcome it.

A new and interesting class being presented this fall and winter, is one in creative cookery. Mrs. Black, director of the food services of the Foundation, is offering a ten-week course, which will include food decorating, arrangements and menu planning, starting Monday, Oct. 12, 8 to 9:30 p.m. Any interested in attending, please notify the Foundation. All classes are open to men and women.

Marley Woman's Club Sponsoring Capital Tour

by VIRGINIA SASS
Phone New Lenox 3133

The Woman's club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mr. Loren Sass, with Mrs. Charles Sievert as assisting hostess. The president, Mrs. William Dudlicek presided. Routine reports were heard from the committee chairmen.

The club will sponsor a bus tour to New Salem State park and points of interest in Springfield, on Oct. 29. On Nov. 2, club members will go to Joliet to stuff envelopes with Christmas seals for the TB association. The club is sponsoring recipe books for their money-making project for the year. Members are to contribute recipes each month to Mrs. Charles Elliott, the chairman of the project.

The program, "California or Florida--Which?", was presented by Mrs. Ray Hamer. Mrs. Glenn Peterson was a guest. After adjournment, refreshments were served by the hostesses. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Royal Corp, with Mrs. John Riley as co-hostess.

Cheryl Sass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Sass, a freshman at Illinois State Normal university, spent last weekend at home. The Missionary society will meet Wednesday, Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. Alma Kohl. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Mary Marshall, Mrs. Ave Cleveland and Mrs. Alma Peterson. The program will be presented by Mrs. Lila Sievert and the devotions by Mrs. Charles Sass.

The Twelve Trumps met Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Leo Shields. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Herman Benck, Mrs. Eugene Anderson and Mrs. Charles Ingram. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Hayes of Chicago spent a few days last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott.

Loons Visit Palos Region On Way South

By Roberts Mann
Conservation Editor

(Cook Co. Forest Preserves)
Every year, in late autumn, we see a few loons on Maple Lake in the Palos preserves. They stop to rest and feed on their way to the gulf coast. In summer, fishermen on lonely lakes in the trackless forests of Canada often hear the weird unearthly cry of a loon. It must have solitude, and even in a remote wilderness, only a large lake may harbor more than one nesting pair.

Loons are seldom found on land. They are closely related to the diving birds of Arctic seas--the queer looking auks, puffins, murres and guillemots--and are cousins to our freshwater divers, the grebes. In each species, the males and females look alike.

This group is the most primitive of all birds and most closely akin to the reptiles. The legs are located so far back on the body, with the "drumstick" buried beneath the skin and feathers of its rump, that the heel joint is close to the tail. Consequently, on land they squat or stand in a vertical position, like a penguin, and walk with great difficulty, using both wings and feet to flounder along.

The Common Loon is a large dark bird with a boat-shaped body that rides very low in the water, a snaky head on its long thick neck and a long narrow sharp-pointed and sharp-edged bill for catching fish. It has the peculiar ability to sink gradually until it disappears without leaving a ripple. Presently, some distance away, it emerges just as mysteriously.

The most unforgettable memories of a loon, seen and heard in a northern wilderness, are of its eerie calls that, at night, shatter the silence with voices like the wild laughter of a demon or the tortured howl of a lost soul.

In full breeding plumage the common loon has a purplish-black head and neck with a patch of narrow white stripes on the throat and similar patches on both sides of the neck. The upper parts, glossy black, are thickly marked with large square white spots in rows that give it a barred appearance. This is a handsome bird--as sharp as a head waiter--with red eyes. However, the adults in winter, and the young until their second year, are grayish-brown on top.

The loon's nest is a flat two-foot mass of vegetation close to the water's edge, or anchored to a bed of reeds, or occasionally on a muskrat house. She lays two dark brown or greenish eggs. When hatched, the precocial young are covered with down and soon able to swim and dive as well as their parents.

Loons feed largely on fish but they also consume quantities of crayfish, mussels, clams, frogs and aquatic insects. They catch fish in long under water dives, sometimes using both wings and the webbed feet for greater speed. There are numerous records of loons getting trapped and drowned in fishing nets placed 180 to 200 feet below the surface.

Six species of loons nest below or above the Arctic Circle in Greenland, Canada, Alaska, Siberia, Finland and Scandinavia. Our common loon winters farthest south but the Red-throated Loon, smaller, is sometimes seen here on Lake Michigan.

There are several species of grebes, all resembling loons in many respects, but only the little Pied-billed Grebe frequents the Chicago region. Many of them raise their broods on the sloughs and ponds in our forest preserves. This grebe differs from other species in having a bill that--instead of being long and pointed--is thick blunt, curved downward at the tip, and circled by a black band. Among its many common names are Hell-diver, Water Witch and Dabchick. This is the familiar little duck-like bird that disappears in the water when alarmed and reappears far from where you last saw it.

Palos Orland Y Offers Variety Of Programs

The Southwest Suburban YMCA, 94th st. and Knox ave., Oak Lawn, announces its new Couples club, a class in mosaic tiling, dancing lessons for adults, and a new concentrated course in millinery for members or non-members.

The "Y" also reports that the previously scheduled classes in art and dramatics for children will not be offered at present.

The six-week concentrated course in fall millinery will not skip the essentials, only eliminate the unnecessary, according to the teacher, Donna Kavanaugh. The group will learn to achieve high style in wardrobes, stretch clothing budgets and make glamorous Christmas gifts, said Miss Kavanaugh. One hat will be made each week—perky pill box, fashionable cloche, also rejuvenation of old felts and feather hats. The first class will meet Oct. 15, 1-3 p.m. at the YMCA. Another course is scheduled to begin the end of January.

The Couples Club, an opportunity to enjoy a date the third Saturday night of each month for mom and dad, will be open to members and their guests. First meeting was a combination dance and square dance, with Gene Ciprian, calling and instructing. The attending couples report a marvelous evening and say they are looking forward to the Oct. 17 meeting, a family affair starting with a Weiner roast in the forest preserves and ending with a splash party at the West Suburban YMCA in La Grange. Families who would like to go along should call the Y office, GA 4-8100 for location of Weiner roast and directions.

Adult square dancing met for the first time Oct. 10 at Sward school, 99 st. and Brandt ave., from 9-11 p.m. Gene Ciprian is the caller and will instruct. The class will meet the second Saturday of each month and is open to members and non-members.

Mosaic tiling class will meet each Wednesday evening at the Y from 7-9 p.m. The teacher will be Mrs. Robert Lester, who has studied five years at the Art Institute and has been a national flower show judge. A continuous series of 6-week courses will be offered, and registrations will be accepted at any time from members and non-members.

There are still two classes left in a program offered for those active in various types of club work. "Committee chairmanship" will be taught by Mrs. Richard Barz. "Money Raising" is the title of the class Mrs. William Martschink will teach. Call the Y office if you would like to join either of both classes.

Adults may still join the social dance class which meets every Thursday evening at the "Y" at 8 p.m. The class is taught by Nick Angelo, Evergreen Park dancing instructor, and features the cha-cha, fox trot, and other popular ball room steps. Open to members and non-members.

There are still a few openings in the children's handcraft class which meets at the "Y" Tuesdays at 3:30. Also children may still enroll in the dance classes held at Sward school each Friday at 3:30 or at Hometown School at 3:30 Mondays. Miss Phyllis Kelly will offer tap, ballet, baton or acrobatic dancing.

Members and friends may phone the "Y" for reservations and tickets for the Oct. 22 night at the Ice Follies. Bus service will be available from the "Y" to the Chicago Stadium.

Hospitalized Vet Is Served By Red Cross

Ralph was badly wounded in Korea in 1952. He still hasn't recovered completely.

For five years he's been in a Chicago veterans' hospital, and during this time, he's been introduced to seven different services performed by Red Cross volunteers.

Actually, his first contact with Red Cross came indirectly through his wife who went to Chicago chapter headquarters for aid during a family emergency. She wrote him overseas later that she had been helped by a volunteer social welfare aide.

Another indirect contact with Red Cross came when a doctor who was dressing his wounds mentioned that the dressings used were made by Red Cross volunteer production workers.

Ralph spent almost two years in a veterans' hospital on the west coast before he could be transferred to Chicago. During this period of loneliness caused by separation from his family, he was cheered by a Red Cross Gray Lady who wrote letters for him and visited him frequently.

Since he's been in Chicago, Ralph has attended the shows in the hospital given by Red Cross volunteer entertainers, and he's been driven to baseball games by Red Cross motor service drivers.

The Red Cross volunteer nurse's aide who helps his regular nurse, tells Ralph that other women work as volunteer staff aides in the hospital, doing volunteer secretarial work.

These are just seven of the 19 Red Cross jobs open to volunteers. Some of the other jobs within your community are disaster representation, health of safety instructor, speaker, and junior Red Cross or public information representative.

This is volunteer recruitment month. For further information on how you may become a Red Cross volunteer, call Mrs. Voris Miller, 17539 S. 65th ave., Tinley Park public information representative, or Jane Gray, Wabash 2-7850.

Taxes are the largest item in the average family budget, followed by food and housing.

Can't Beat a Corn Picker

This is a busy time on the farm. The corn harvest is in full swing and unless those engaged in the task use care it can be a tragic season as well as a busy one.

Modern machinery has lightened work on the farm and enables one to accomplish as much in a couple of hours as was done in a day in former years. The mechanical cornpicker is an excellent example of what machinery can do to lighten the work load and shorten the time to get the job done.

But users must always keep in mind that a corn picker can be a lethal device if carelessly operated. Too many farmers have lost in trying to beat the machine.

O. L. Hogsett, a safety specialist with the U. of I. agriculture school, explains why it is Joe Farmer comes out second best when he tries to beat the picker.

A stalk of corn goes thru the snapping rolls at seven feet a second. Scientific tests show that four-tenths of a second is required to perform the simple reaction of letting go of a cornstalk.

This means that a stalk goes about three feet thru the rolls while one is reacting to the danger.

But wait! The science chaps aren't thru. The first reaction when a stalk starts thru the rolls is the wrong one, they say. The natural reaction when someone tries to grab a stick away from you is to grasp it tighter. This non-controllable reaction more than doubles the reaction time before one can let go.

So the simple reason why farmers get caught in snapping and husking rolls is that they don't understand their natural reaction time, Hogsett explains. This failing, one may add, is a basic failing of all humans and does not apply just to farmers.

Trying to adjust or unclog a corn picker while it is running is deplored by glove makers except those who specialize in making coverings for artificial hands.

Sometimes the injury is such that the resultant shock is fatal to the victim.

Tinkering with a going corn picker is risky business. The person who does it is taking about the same chances driving on a busy four-lane highway blindfolded.

You just can't win.

On Second Thot

by
GLENN F. LOGAN

Never a week goes by but the mail brings in suggestions to aid the busy housewife. Experts in various fields rush in with ideas to make her lot a happy one.

The appliance manufacturers have not yet been able to remove all the drudgery out of household tasks but they are trying and it shouldn't surprise anyone, if someone comes up with a gadget that will get children out of bed, wash them—including ears—dress them, feed them and get them off to school, and at the same time roust the husband and get him fed and on his way to work.

There is such a device now that does all these things—it's called Mother,—but what we have in mind is a mechanical contrivance that can be worked by push buttons or remote control thru frequency waves.

Having mechanical dishwashers is alright but we can't stop there. The next step is to have robots that can lug the dishes from the table to the dishwasher. There is no reason really why such robots could not perform other kitchen chores, such as planning, preparing and serving meals. The ultimate in this field, of course, would be a machine that could spread cold butter on a slice of bread—fresh—without putting a hole in the bread.

And speaking of spreading butter on bread brings to mind a suggestion received in the mail this week from one of the University of Illinois home economics experts—mass production of sandwiches in order to expedite the packing of lunches for kids or grown ups.

When not in the lunch pail these sandwiches are kept within a freezer. Before making up a batch, however, the experts advise that one make sure there is space enough in the freezer to make the job worth-while.

This column does not pretend to be an expert in such things—except the eating thereof—but it would seem this would furnish appliance makers with a new outlet, the sale of sandwich freezers, with special trays for the open face fancies.

With such equipment one could build up a sandwich stock to carry them thru the year. There may be plans for a home sandwich material mixer on the drawing board right now. Such a machine could be set up in abasement or utility room. It wouldn't have to be too large, say a half ton or ton capacity and be so constructed that all one would have to do is shovel in the ingredients for the fillers, and shove in the bread, push a button or turn a switch and then forget about it.

The machine would mix and spread the sandwiches, wrap them and then run them into the freezer by a conveyor system. Special cutters would be included in the sandwich maker to shape bread for the fancy varieties.

With a stock of sandwiches on hand the homemaker would find it easy to pack lunches or be prepared for parties or card games—pin-ochle, bridge or poker—without a thot as to what to serve.

Just run thru your sandwich freezer inventory, and make the selections to meet the occasion. No last minute rush, no hurried search of shelves for something to meet an emergency.

This mechanical stuff is all right and we may as well make up our minds that we shall become more mechanized as time goes on but let us hope the engineers don't go too far. They may invent new and easier ways to grow and process foods and beverages but we hope they let us use our own stomachs.

DENTAL HEALTH

THE VALUE OF X-RAYS
The magic of x-ray helps a dentist find tooth trouble.

With the aid of this magic eye he can look at structures that are hidden below the gum line. He can spot decay long before it is felt by the patient. He can examine the condition of the tooth pulp, the soft tissue in the roots of the teeth.

Dentists depend largely on x-rays to show whether roots are well formed or broken, and whether foreign bodies, such as parts of fillings have become wedged beneath the gums.

Discovered in 1896, x-rays were quickly adapted to dentistry and today are an indispensable part of the dentist's equipment.

The dentist is highly skilled in reading x-ray films which are black and white photographic impressions of the interior of the object photographed. Objects are depicted in varying tones of black and white, depending on their densities.

Since the dentist knows the normal form and shape of teeth and the bone surrounding them, he can quickly tell by the different densities the presence or absence of abnormal conditions. Thus, a metallic filling, being denser than the tooth, would appear lighter in the film. Where there is tooth destruction from decay, a darker shadow would appear.

The great advantage of x-ray, of course, is that decay can be spotted in an early stage when the tooth can be filled and saved without the loss of much tooth structure.

Use of x-rays is especially important in the pre-school child in order to determine whether the permanent teeth are developing properly and whether there are any extra teeth that may be crowding the erupted teeth and forcing them out of position.

Dentists recommend a full mouth x-ray for children at least once a year to note the relative development and growth of the individual teeth and jaws.

For those who must wear artificial teeth, an x-ray is essential to show the condition of the gum tissues and whether there are any retained roots or unerupted teeth that would make the wearing of dentures difficult.

X-rays are also valuable in the diagnosis and treatment of periodontal diseases (diseases of the gums and supporting structures of the teeth.)

(Next week: Pregnancy and Dental Disease)

In 1900, when the population of the U.S. was 76.1 million, there were nearly 31 million children under the age of 18 and a newborn baby had a life expectancy of 49 years. Today, there are more than 61 million children in the country under the age of 18 out of a population of 175 million and the life expectancy is 70 years.

Name Township Chairmen For November CROP Drive

Surplus food — a burden to the people of the U. S. — will prove a life-saving necessity to millions of starving people elsewhere on the globe if enthusiastic volunteers of Christian Rural Overseas program have their way.

CROP has collected 440,645,000 pounds of food between 1947 and 1958. The value of food sent in the last 12 years is almost $50 million. This includes government gifts from that troublesome surplus and donations from individual farmers.

Beginning soon, volunteers in Will county will ask for contributions to the 1959 CROP collection.

The county aims at a total of three carloads of corn, valued at $5,000.

Nov. 16 and 17 are collection dates set for Will county by the local CROP committee which met Sept. 22 at Will County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation offices in Joliet.

Rev. Elvin Frantz, state CROP director, attended the meeting here to outline plans for the campaign. Church World Service of the National Council of Churches of Christ in USA sponsors the food collections to assist church relief programs in 20 countries abroad.

Members of the CROP board attending were Rev. Paul Wright of Elwood, Rev. Glenn Dunbar of Manhattan, Rev. Harry Harwood of Joliet, Richard Tyler of Elwood, James Tilsy of Mokena, Mrs. Norman Krapf of Manhattan and Mrs. Bessie Cluts, assistant home adviser.

Township chairmen and the

This Week's Predictions

By PEEPING FIGSKIN

Look for a rejuvenated Bremen team to take Reavis in a real tight contest. We say this because Larry Callan has brought his boys off the floor and they might be getting into high gear.

Carl Sandburg will not find the schedule too easy when they take on Homewood-Flossmoor, but the Eagles are strong enough to add victory.

This is something that doesn't look good. Both of the games were picked wrong last week. So I think that you had better disregard this segment—hence forth.

number three to the record.

The Lincoln-Way and Oak Lawn contest should be a real good game. The Knights have proved their class. They beat Rich and then lost a very close game in the mud battle last Saturday with Carl Sandburg. We will stick with the Knights, in spite of last week's defeat.

WHAT A RECORD. Three right and four wrong. Oh! my aching back.

PTA News

ORLAND PARK UNIT

A record-breaking attendance marked the PTA's open house at the Orland Park Elementary school Wednesday evening, Oct. 7.

"It is easy to see why there are so many new faces here this evening," remarked Norbert Jerling, school superintendent, "when you consider the enrollment last September was 282 whereas this year it is 410."

The PTA business meeting came to order with Mrs. Frank Bischoff, presiding. Room count honors went to Mrs. Hall's 7th grade and Miss Ginder's 2nd and 3rd grade for 100% parent-teacher representation.

Mrs. Edwin Kroeger was introduced as the new hot lunch program chairman. She reported on the meeting of a hot lunch committee with the school board Sept. 23, which she, Mrs. Eugene Paschal, Mrs. Francis Coan, Mrs. Harry Burson, and Mrs. Harold Yaeger attended. They were requested by the Board to resurvey parent interest in a hot lunch cafeteria. Consequently, within the near future questionnaires will be sent to the parents with a request that only one questionnaire per family be returned and that comments be made whether favorably or unfavorably.

In response to several inquiries regarding a possible caucus system of electing school board members in District 135, it was recommended by the PTA board that a public meeting be held in December to discuss the merits and disadvantages of such a system. The PTA voted to hold such a meeting.

"This does not mean that the PTA is sponsoring a caucus system," Mrs. Bischoff emphasized.

A speaker will be obtained for a public meeting and if there is sufficient public interest, then a caucus can be formed.

Mrs. William Fisher, recreation chairman, reported that due to the increased enrollment it is planned to have skating one night for the older children, 6th, 7th and 8th grades, and another night for the younger group, 1st through the 5th. The first skating party, held Friday evening, Oct. 2, had 105 skaters from the 6th, 7th and 8th grades. Skating for the younger group is set for Oct. 23. Mrs. Edgar and Mrs. Charles Weist are acting co-chairmen.

A plea for more skating fathers to chaperone the parties was made by Mrs. Fisher.

Volunteers to help Mrs. Kelsey, the school nurse, with the children's weights and measurements were requested by Mrs. Merrill Cooper, health chairman.

Mrs. Gordon Bendix, room mother chairman, asked for a donation of $1 per child where possible for the room mothers to use for the class parties during the year. An innovation this fall that may well be copied was an evening get-together Mrs. Thompson's 1st grade room mothers had for mothers and teachers.

The various other chairmen reported on their plans for the coming months.

Mrs. Eugene Paschal, Program chairman, presented an amusing film strip featuring the Bannister babies, "So this is PTA", with commentaries read by Mrs. Gordon Bendix.

Mr. Jerling then presented the 14 teachers, five of whom are new to the school system, and Mrs. Clarence Kelsey, school nurse.

The teachers are: Mrs. Linda Lee Moody and Mrs. Beverly Thompson, 1st grade; Mrs. Barbara Wile, 2nd grade; Miss Mary Ginder, 2nd-3rd grade; Mrs. Dorothy Davidson, 3rd grade; Mrs. Ruth Mowery, 4th grade; Mrs. Hazel Brown, 4th-5th grade; Mrs. Barbara Fish, 5th grade; Miss Walda Kuklinski, 6th grade; Martin Lesniewicz, 6th grade; Mrs. Rutilla Hall, 7th grade; John Davis, 7th grade; Miss Carol Jorth, 8th grade and James Callahan, 8th grade.

The average pupil load is 30 per teacher, Jerling pointed out.

The parents were invited to visit children's classrooms, meet their teachers, view their work, and discuss the curriculum.

Refreshments were served by the 8th grade room mothers and their committee.

Chicago Woman Gets Illinois Heart Award

A Chicago woman doctor who has specialized in studies of how female sex hormones may protect against artery disease and heart attack, was awarded financial assistance by the Illinois Heart Association to help continue her research.

She is Dr. Ruth Pick, a former Czech refugee, who is a member of the heart research team headed by Dr. Louis N. Katz at Michael Reese Hospital Medical Center. Dr. Pick is assistant director of the Department of Cardiovascular Research and an Established Investigator of the American Heart Association.

A. H. Sommer of Peoria, President of the Illinois Heart Association, said that funds to assist Dr. Pick's work will come from contributions by Illinois residents to last February's Heart Fund campaign.

File Suit Against Sanitary District For Felling Trees

(CNS) The felling of more than 200 trees on 20 lots along a creek in Worth township has rendered the property unfit for a motel, it's charged in a suit for $32,000 damages filed in Circuit court.

The trees were chopped down on orders of the Metropolitan Sanitary District, according to the suit filed for Henry Fanelli, a bachelor and owner of the property on the south side of 95th street between Natoma and Nashville avenues.

A 25 foot wide creek runs diagonally across the property from northwest to southeast and had been unobstructed. Trees of various types along the banks of the creek enhanced the value of the land for its highest and best use—a motel, the suit says.

About June 1 the sanitary district named defendant, chopped down more than 200 trees on the property. The trees fell into the creek bed, obstructing the flow of water and rendering the property unfit for the purpose for which the premises were intended and for which they might be used, the suit says.

Permission to enter the land never was given by the plaintiff and the defendant had no right to step on the real estate, the suit asserts. It says the defendant damaged the property but took no steps to ascertain the compensation to be paid.

It is the duty of the defendant to pay just compensation to the plaintiff for damage done, the suit contends. It charges the acts of the defendant have seriously impaired the fair cash market value of the land.

Parents To Hear Doctor On Speech Hearing Defects

Dr. William F. Waldrop of the Speech and Hearing Clinic at St. Luke's and Presbyterian hospital, will speak at the October 9 meeting of the Council for Handicapped children, to be held in Blackhawk school, Park Forest, at 8 pm. He will talk on the social and psychological implications of a speech or hearing defect.

logical implications of a speech or hearing defect.

Open house was held at the deaf and hard of hearing class at Blackhawk school Oct. 6. Mrs. Tina Schwartz, teacher of the class, described how the special equipment is used and explained her methods of teaching the children. Students spend only a portion of the day in her class and participate in the normal class room program the balance of the day.

A new room for the deaf and hard of hearing was recently opened in school district 170, Chicago Heights. The class is held in the new Grant school and utilizes the newest and most modern transistor type of equipment.

Plan Annual

Turkey Dinner

By Delores Anderson
New Lenox 3651
The Methodist church will hold their annual turkey dinner Thursday night Oct. 29 at the hours of 5, 6 and 7 p.m. Tickets are limited and must be bought in advance. For reservations call Grace Sweet, at New Lenox 6168.

Margaret Ehrlich of 715 Ogden Rd., a nurse and laboratory technician, was honored last Wednesday at St. Francis Hospital, Blue Island, for nine years of service to the hospital in the clinical laboratory. Along with 126 women employees she was presented with a service award pin by the administrator, Sister Marie Duchesne, who graciously hosted the tea in their honor.

A luncheon, honoring also twelve men employees, was given during which Sister Marie Duchesne presented each with a token of appreciation.

The entire group of 139 employees, with five or more years of hospital service, together have given over a 1000 years of service.

The Sisters of St. Mary are deeply grateful to these loyal men and women.

Mrs. Alfred Emily has returned from Springfield, where she attended the 85th annual session of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of Illinois, last week.

Confirmation class for boys and girls of the Grace Episcopal church is being held each Saturday morning at 10:30 at the church until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hair and daughter Karen entertained Friday night at a 6:30 o'clock dinner party in their home at 160 E. Wood, for Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Zamora and children Mark, Marta and Nancy of Joliet. Following the dinner they journeyed to the Midway Airport in Chicago, where they saw the Zamora family off on a trip to San Salvador, Central America, where they will vacation.

The Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service will have their executive meeting in the Fellowship hall of the church on Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. Doughnuts and coffee will be served.

Marine Pvt. George R. Sablotny, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sablotny of 231 S. Cooper, completed recruit training Sept. 29 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The 11-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and infantry weapons.

Upon completion of training new Marines are assigned to a unit for further infantry training, or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.

The misses, Marilyn Sayers, Janice Kadow, Doris Smith and Dotte Anderson of New Lenox, Patty Dath of Mokena, and Vivienne Eisenbrandt of Frankfort, came home Friday from I. S. N. U. at Normal, Ill. for a long weekend. Their main purpose in coming home was to attend the Lincoln-Way High Homecoming. They returned to school Monday night.

Norma K. Heidrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Heidrich, 925 Ogden Rd., is a member of the freshman class at Beloit College and recently pledged to Delta Gamma social sorority. She is a graduate of Lincoln-Way High school.

The Chancel Guild of Trinity Lutheran church will hold their rummage sale in the afternoon and evening hours of October 23 and 24, Friday and Saturday, in the basement of the church, at Cedar Road and Elm St.

The Lincoln-Way Band officers recently elected their new 1959-60 section leaders, and assistants for the band. They are as follows: Flutes, Penny Fiegen; leader; Gwen Doering, assistant; Clarinet, Lois Sluiter, leader and Sharon Smego, assistant; Alto and Base Clarinet, Bassons and Oboe, Sharon Jedlick, leader and Leslie Ekedahl, assistant; Saxophone, Richard Zatteau, leader, and Lou Ann Camerilo, assistant; Cornets, Shirley Seivert, leader, and Charles Miller, assistant; Horns, Jonelle Robertson, leader, and Gene Cline, assistant; Trombones, and Baritone, Dick Hammond, leader, and Mike Dina, assistant; Basses, Lester Michalec, leader, and Reese Jones, assistant; Percussion, Dave Larson, leader and Glen Bitner, assistant.

Robert Stockley Sr. has returned from a three week's vacation spent with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dolesek, in northern Wisconsin.

Frank Jones was called to Arkansas last Saturday due to the serious illness of his mother.

The Parent Teacher Association will meet Tuesday Oct. 13, at Haven school auditorium at 7:45 p.m. Guest speaker will be Will Rasmussen of Joliet, from the Lutheran Children's Home, and his topic will be on "The Changing Children's Home". Hostess for the evening will be the 7th grade mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schwab spent the day Sunday with their daughter, Janice Kadow, who is a student at ISNU in Normal.

Palos Village Players Awarded

"Oscars" At Beaux Arts Ball

The Beaux Arts ball, given by the Palos Village Players, last Saturday at the Sabre Room, 8900 W. 95th st., was a smash hit and a complete sell out.

"Oscars" for the 1958-59 season were presented at the Ball. Zay Smith, 12315 81st ave., Palos Park, won the award for the best director. Katy Cott, 8514 119th place, Palos Park, received the best actress award. The award for the best actor went to Everett Wyatt, 8639 Natchez st., Oak Lawn. Patricia Goes, 9400 W. 123rd st., Palos Park, received the award for the best supporting actress. The best supporting actor award went to Walter Cook, 11948 Timberlane, Palos Park and the best character award was won by John Goes, 9400 W. 123rd st., Palos Park.

George Wennerberg, chairman of the Beaux Arts Ball, and his committee arranged a delightful floor show. Vocalist Akelas Karampilis pleased the audience and scored a personal triumph. Don Archambault, as Keeley Smith, and Louis Gemeinhardt, as Louis Prima, gave a hilarious parody of that famous couple doing their hit song "Old Black Magic." Charlie Corso, the popular and well known woman impersonator, and a great favorite of The Palos Village Players, turned in a roaring piece of showmanship.

Zay Smith, president of the Palos

Village Players, said "he thought the Beaux Arts costumes this year were extremely outstanding and created a very colorful spectacle." There were dashing sheiks, sultans, potentates; carnivorous cannibals; beautiful Hawaiian hula dancing girls; Geisha girls; pretty native girls from Mexico, a Swiss yodeler and even a "Yul Brynner."

Due to the condemnation of The Palos Village Hall, home of the Palos Village Players, the production, "For Love or Money", scheduled for Oct. 16, 17 and 18 has been postponed to December 4, 5 and 6.

In the very near future the Players hope to announce a substitute play at some other theatre for those who have already purchased tickets for the October production.

Business Director, Louis Gemeinhardt, 12929 78th court, Palos Park, would welcome any suggestions or information as to a suitable stage, theatre or auditorium, in the area, for the Palos Village Players future productions. Contact him at Gibson 8-3946.

A recent industry survey shows that 30 per cent of all wrist watches are purchased by men for themselves, 30 per cent are bought by men as gifts for others, 11 per cent are sold to women for gifts and only nine per cent are bought by women for their own use.

Pi social fraternity. He is a graduate of Lincoln-Way Community High school.

Albert Krusemark III has had the honor of being pledged to the Theta Chi fraternity at the University of Illinois. He spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krusemark and also attended the homecoming at Lincoln-Way High school last Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Matt Pilling of Seattle, Wash. were overnight guests of Dr. and Mrs. Claude Otto last Wednesday enroute to Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. Irving Rudman saw the play "The West Side Story" in Chicago last Tuesday evening. Ray Putnam spent several days last week at Detroit, Mich. on business, arriving home Thursday evening.

The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold its general meeting Tuesday, Oct. 20 in the church Fellowship Hall. Dessert-coffee will be served at 1:15 by the hostesses: Mrs. Lloyd Heisner, Mrs. Walter Grotewald and Mrs. Elsie Mark.

Mrs. Marion Bell is in charge of the devotions and program. Special speaker for the afternoon will be Mr. Hazzard F. Parks, director of Marcy Center, Chicago. "Heart of the Neighbor" will be the topic presented plus a film and question period. A special invitation is extended to guests.

A cradle roll party will be given at the St. Peter's church parlors on Wednesday, Oct. 21, at 1:30 pm. All mothers, grandmothers and great grandmothers are invited to attend. A program will be held and refreshments served. The committee is composed of Mrs. Edward Tewes, Mrs. Don Stephen, Mrs. Howard Remien and Mrs. Roy Ebert.

The grade school band took part in the homecoming at Lincoln-Way High school last Saturday afternoon.

Floyd Lankenau of Dearborn, Mich., visited with relatives here last Monday and Tuesday. He stayed with his sister Miss Viola Lankenau on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bannister of Aurora, Neb., spent several days the first part of the week with Dr. and Mrs. Merle Otto.

Bill Remien returned from Beloit college at Wis., to spend the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Remien and also attended the homecoming at Lincoln-Way High school Saturday.

Lincoln Estates

Homework Is Topic Of PTA Council Meet

By Mrs. Emil Wille
Frankfort 3161

A discussion on homework for the child was held at the Eastern Area Council of Parent-Teacher meeting held Oct. 1 in Peotone Community High School. Attending from Lincoln Estates were Mrs. Donald Ball, Mrs. Robert Wheeler, Mrs. Donald Scates, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Kaehler, Jay Bissell and Lloyd Alton.

The enrollment of the Ann Rutledge school is 113 for the 1959-60 school term. Twelve of these are 8th grade students.

Mrs. John Bevan is the new first and second grade teacher. She attended Chicago Teachers college and now resides in Frankfort.

The school has a touch football team this year. Of the two games so far played, they have had one win and one loss. Both games were played at home.

Some of the significant changes made at the school this summer are the football and basketball fields and additional playground equipment.

Mrs. Stratton is the new crossing guard at the corner of 80th Ave. and Rt. 30. She is assisted by patrol boys, Cpt. Michael Urbano and Lts. Jim Blevins and Bill Staton.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Guth last Saturday evening, were her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brock and daughter Sandra of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Carpenter and her mother, Mrs. Lottie Mills of Salt Lake City, Utah, have been guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erdic Dickens for about six days. On Wednesday evening all were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blevins where they celebrated the birthday of Charlotte Dickens. Other guests were Mrs. Dorine Heston and daughter of Beecher and Mrs.

Lincolnwood

Celebrates Birthday With Pizza Party

By Delores Anderson
New Lenox 3651

On Saturday night Oct. 3, the misses Sandra Kooyenga and Judy Owen entertained at a pizza party, in the home of Sandra's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kooyenga, East Circle drive. Games were played and dancing was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Decorations were carried out in the birthday motif, the occasion being Sandra's 13th birthday anniversary. A decorated cake centered the table. Guests were, the Misses Pat Dolan, Delores Kooyenga, Hansena Vanborg, Sarah Becker, Sandra Kooyenga and Judy Owen; also, Roger Taylor, Kenneth Foutz, Edward Meyer, Mark Thomas, Mike Cullen, and Ricky Knupp.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kooyenga have had as their guests this past week, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kohonen and children, and Mrs.

Lorretta Houchins of Blue Island.

Mrs. Celia Swatek, Mrs. Bess Hamilton, Mrs. Mary Wershing and Mrs. Ruth Elphick attended the antique show at Harvey last Friday.

Clarence Zimmerman, 32, of 80th Ave., was taken to St. James hospital, Chicago Heights for treatment of injuries suffered early Sunday morning, Oct. 4 in a collision at U. S. 30 and Harlem Ave.

According to information reported by State Trooper Stewart Tribe both cars involved were traveling west.

Car 1 of the report, driven by Donald Smit, 19, of Summit had slowed practically to a halt to make a left turn onto Harlem. Zimmerman, the report states, did not see Smit signal for a left turn until too late. He swerved his car but struck the right rear end of the vehicle ahead. Smit and his five companions escaped injury, according to state police.

Zimmerman was a ticket charging him with following too closely the car ahead of him.

Verna Ward, of Quincy and Arlington, Washington.

Mrs. Roman Nowicki spent Wednesday in Chicago with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thode have returned from Minneapolis, Minn. where they spent a week visiting with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Mott and children. During their absence, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Thode and son Kurt of Chicago, stayed in their home here.

Mrs. Ann Halik and Mrs. Dorothy Owen have been appointed to campaign the Lincolnwood area to raise funds for the new Will County 4-H fair grounds, that is being erected on Francis road in New Lenox. The drive will be on during the month of October. People are urged to give what they can for a worthy cause.

Homecoming At ISNU Planned For Oct. 23-24

Many parents and alumni from this area will be among the homecomers on the Illinois State Normal University campus Oct. 23-24 who will enjoy a full weekend of activities.

The festivities will include four presentations of the Homecoming play, the traditional parade, pep session and bonfire, two dances queen crowning, many special events, and the football game on Saturday afternoon.

CHRYSLER 1960

The car of your life for the time of your life!

There have never been so many new advances... in any single year... as there are in the new Chrysler for 1960.

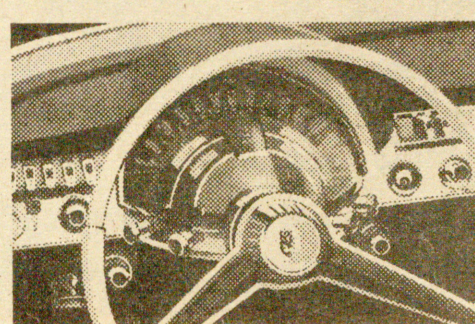

New Ideas in Styling. Bold, strong grille. Graceful rear deck. Clean lines sheathed in Lustre-Bond... the hardest automotive finish known.

New Ideas in Convenience. Chrysler offers automatic Swivel Seats... pushbutton controls. Three-dimensional AstraDome houses instruments.

New Ideas in Comfort. The driver's seat has been raised... padded with extra foam rubber. There's more leg, knee, hip and head room.

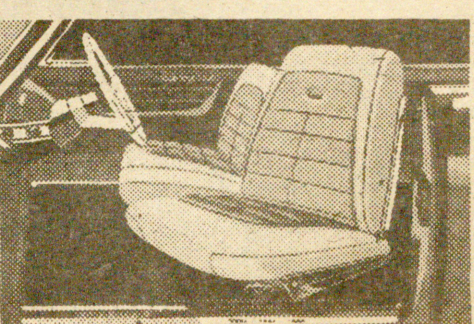

New Ideas in Reliability. Body and frame are built as a single, rattle-free Unibody. Stronger, quieter, roomier. A new dipping process locks rust out of vital areas.

Get touching, close to this new Chrysler soon. Compare its fresh beauty with other cars. See how Chrysler has actually built in more room while other cars continue to be cramped. Then take it out on the road and have the time of your life!

New AstraDome Control Center. Three-dimensional dome projects instruments toward the driver... makes them easy to read. At night, new Panelescent lighting gives reflection-free illumination.

This is Chrysler's greatest... lion-hearted

This new Swivel Seat is Automatic. Open the door and the seat swings out to greet you automatically! When you leave the car it automatically swings inside. Chrysler's High-Tower seat adds driver comfort.

BAUDRY, Billy — In loving memory of our beloved son, brother and uncle who passed away Oct. 19, 1957.

October is a beautiful month, with its gentle breeze and falling leaves of red and gold; God too must have thought it so, for that's when he came to you and said, come your work here is done and one whom we loved has gone to a better life, dear Lord we pray.

When many others in your predicament would have been resentful toward the world, you saw good and beauty, your patience and loving smile an inspiration to those who knew and loved you when we think back we feel humble.

Until we meet again remembrance, memories and our love will always keep you near.

Your loving family.
Mokena

WELCOME WAGON

Mrs. Carl Johnson, last Wednesday afternoon. Roll call was answered by 12 members with "A Childhood Verse I Remember."
Mrs. Kenneth McCarty presided at the business meeting. The major lesson was given by the home advisor, Mrs. Betty Schinn, and the topic was, "Accessories for Your Costumes." Mrs. A. Nieland gave the minor lesson, Hair
Care after the meeting a lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be "Units Choice Month" and will be held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Nieland. Mrs. Ludwig Thiel of Mokena will be the guest speaker at this meeting.

A Holbrook luncheon, sponsored by the Always Faithful class of the Methodist church, will be held Thursday, Nov. 19 at 12:30 p.m. Anyone wishing to go may contact either Mrs. Edwin Dralle or Mrs. Earl Bettenhausen for tickets.

PACK 253

At the September meeting of Cub Scout Pack 253, Tinley Park
the following boys were inducted into the Pack and received their Bobcat badges: Ronald Neifert, Neil Mikesell, Billy Rayson, James McNamara and Gary Smith.

Thomas Raines was presented the Bear badge and John Allen received his two year pin.

Games were enjoyed and it was announced the October meeting would be in the form of a Halloween party, families coming in costume. A pumpkin carving contest will also be featured. Cub Scouts, with the help of their fathers, are to have their pumpkin carved and bring it to the party.

TERRY

Terry is a shortening of Terence, which actually is a relatively modern shortening of the Old Irish name Toirdhealbhaic, meaning "like Thor." Thor, of course, was the ancient god of thunder.
